

UBC LEGACY PROJECT:

LIBRARY STAFF INTERVIEW QUESTIONS

When and where were you born?

Can you describe your educational background prior to joining the UBC Library?

Did you work in other libraries before coming to the UBC Library?

When and in what capacity did you first join the Library?

What attracted you to library work?

How many years did you work in the UBC Library – which branches and in what capacities?

During your career at UBC were there particular supervisors or co-workers that stand out in your memory and why?

What if any changes did you notice in the relationship of the various employee groups during your career in the UBC Library?

While working for the UBC Library did you participate in other university-based activities?

Were you an active participant in professional organizations beyond the University?

What do you think were the biggest changes you witnessed in Library operations over the course of your career?

What personal accomplishments are you most proud of during your career in the UBC Library?

What do you think will be the biggest challenges and opportunities for libraries in the future?

Are there any final observations that you would care to offer about your experiences with the UBC Library?
