UBC LEGACY PROJECT:

ALUMNI/ALUMNAE INTERVIEW QUESTIONS

1. When and where were you born?

2. What schools did you attend before coming to UBC?

3. Why did you choose to come to UBC? Did other siblings in your family attend university?

4. What were your first impressions of the University?

5. What did you study at the University? What drew you to this subject?

6. Can you talk about professors that you particularly remember and why they stood out?

7. What can you recall about your classes and your fellow students?

8. Did you live off-campus or in residence, and what do you recall about this experience? (The quality of residence life; friendships and activities; if not living on campus, the challenges of commuting to the campus from another part of town.)

9. With what clubs, sports, or other activities were you involved? Did they reflect your pre-University interests, or were you inspired to try new things when you arrived?

10. Were you involved in student politics and, if so, what were some of the major issues and/or personalities that you remember?

11. What do you remember about University facilities – cafeterias, libraries, classrooms, labs, etc.? Were there any buildings that you particularly remember, and why? What were your favourite places for studying and/or socializing?
12. What do you recall about the social life for students both on and off campus – dances, societies, clubs, fraternities/sororities, etc.?

13. Were there any particular traditions associated with the University that you can recall – frosh week, initiation, orientation, storm-the-wall, etc.?

14. What, if any, changes did you notice at the University during your time here?

15. Did you go on to pursue graduate work?

16. What do you consider to be the most memorable highlights of your time at UBC?

17. What did you do after you left the university? Would you say that your time at UBC prepared you for the career challenges that you faced subsequently?

18. Could you tell us a little about the ways in which you have maintained a connection with UBC since your graduation? (e.g. Alumni Association events, class reunions, sports teams, theatre or concert performances)
