YOUNG MAN WITH A FUTURE...

MEET BOB ESPLIN

Honors Graduate in Chemical Engineering

The Fellowship, which will enable Bob to complete his Master's Degree next year, was set up by our Company in 1939, established as a part answer to a challenge we have accepted . . . a challenge presented by the industry of this province for the development of new and better fuel and lubricating products.

We consider that this Fellowship is an investment in the future of British Columbia and its people . . . a contribution to progress in the almost limitless field of petroleum products engineering.

The University of B.C., just over 30 years old, has graduates in practically every line of human endeavor and key men and women in most of them, but until recently not one had scaled any judical height of importance. J. V. Clyne, Arts '23, attended to this in his customary thorough way recently when he made himself such an outstanding figure in the Bar of British Columbia that the Federal Government in July appointed him Judge of the Supreme Court of B.C.

The Honourable Mr. Justice J. V. Clyne achieved his position on the bench without the benefit of political connection and ascended to his present position in the legal hierarchy because he was recognized, plainly, as being a man of outstanding legal ability. The stamp was on the new Judge early. He always did things well and his rise in the Profession has been rapid and always in the same direction—up.

PLAYERS CLUB ALUMNUS

It isn't clear whether he joined the Players' Club and became one of its star performers because he loved the stage or one of the leading ladies more. In any case his leading lady of many productions, the attractive Betty Somerset, eventually took over the leading role in his household and several years and two children later they're still the charming twosome that entertained many a University audience.

Considered one of Canada's outstanding maritime lawyers, precise, competent Jack Clyne had prior to the end of the war, built up a national reputation as a marine expert. In 1947 at the legally youthful age of 45, he was asked to form and chair a Canadian Maritime Commission to enquire into, and advise upon Canada's problems as they related to matters of the sea and particularly to the vexing problem of Canada's merchant marine, facing a difficult future at that time.

MR. JUSTICE J. V. CLYNE

He was scheduled to return to private law practice in Vancouver but the Supreme Court in B.C. needed another judge to help handle the province's fast-expanding courts and it didn't take the government long to find just the right man. Jack Clyne's appointment was received wholeheartedly by the legal profession who regard him as one of the ablest members.

NEWS IS NOT EVERYTHING

A GOOD newspaper, like the Sun, has world-wide news-gathering facilities and comes to its readers crammed with accounts of fact every day, But in the complex times in which we live, the facts are myriad and sometimes contradictory, and the recital of them isn't everything. To the thoughtful citizen the evaluation of them is as important as the facts . . . and a good newspaper, also like The Sun, offers its readers personal anaylsis and comment covering a wide section of the intellectual spectrum. You'll enjoy the offering, and sometimes the clash, of opinion in The Sun by these intelligent writers.

THE VANCOUVER

UNIVERSITY CLUB QUESTIONNAIRE

301 forms were returned. Of these 174 were interested in resident membership of one type or other, 98 in non-resident membership, and 29, who apparently treated the questionnaire as a vote, were not interested in any type at the moment.

You will remember that the questionnaire listed four possible types of club: Type A, offering extensive dining, recreational, and residential quarters, suggested an initiation fee of about $300 and annual dues of about $150; Type B, offering a good dining room, bar, with some facilities for entertaining, and possibly some living quarters, with a suggested initiation fee of $100 and annual dues of $50; Type C, offering a good dining and bar, probably located downtown, with an initiation fee of about $35 and annual dues of about $25; Type D, offering possible utilization of some club rooms on the campus with some catering facilities, and suggested an initiation fee of $10 and annual dues of $20.

Of those interested in resident membership, first choices were as follows: Type A—40, Type B—69, Type C—53, Type D—12.

However, the answers also indicated that if Type A or Type B could not be successfully established now, a total of 138 would be interested in Type C, and of these, 132 said that they were prepared to pay the fees. Only 21 preferred Type D, even when second choices were considered. Only 19 said they were prepared to pay fees in Type A and 38 were ready to pay fees in Type B.

Of those interested in resident membership, 134 were males and 38 females; in non-resident membership, 75 were males and 23 females.

About 35% of those answering the questionnaire felt that membership should be restricted to persons who were full degree graduates only, and this applied generally to all types of club, whether A, B, C, or D.

VICTORIA TIMES BOASTS U. B. C. PUBLISHER AND STAFF

By "DITCHBY"

Unlike Magic Backing Powder which contains no alum, The Victoria Daily Times contains about a dozen alums, and should be able to have a Homecoming ceremony daily right on the premises. It should be able to give its readers the benefit of a little education (in judicious doses, you understand), and prove once and for all that an educated newspaper man can presume to hold his own with the proudly ignorant. As a parodist of Burns sang, "A gentleman, however clean, may have a heart for a' that," and perhaps he can have a head too. This fact has long been suspected in Fleet Street, Boston, and part of New York, but it percolates westward rather sluggishly.

Heading The Times is its new publisher, Stu Keate, Arts 35. Stu, as most of you know, was Sports Editor of the Vancouver Province before the war, took time out for a frolic with the R.C.N.V.R., and then became head of Time Magazine's Montreal office. In spite of Montreal's comparative civilization, he is glad to get back to the charms of B.C. (who isn't?), and anyone who knows him is certain he will make as much of a go of The Times as is permitted in Victoria, and then some.

Besides Stu on the staff, there are Jim McKeachie, Commerce 48, as general reporter; Don Ingham, Arts 37, general reporter; Brian Tobin, Arts 30, editorial writer and columnist; David Brock, Arts 30, columnist; Joyce (Blunt) James, Commerce, 43, editorial secretary; Aileen (Merritt) Campbell, City Hall reporter. Then from our affiliated Victoria College there are Art Scott, editroial writer and columnist; Gordon Jones, credit manager; and Bob Hutchison ((Son of Bruce), and Bud Bendall, both junior reporters.

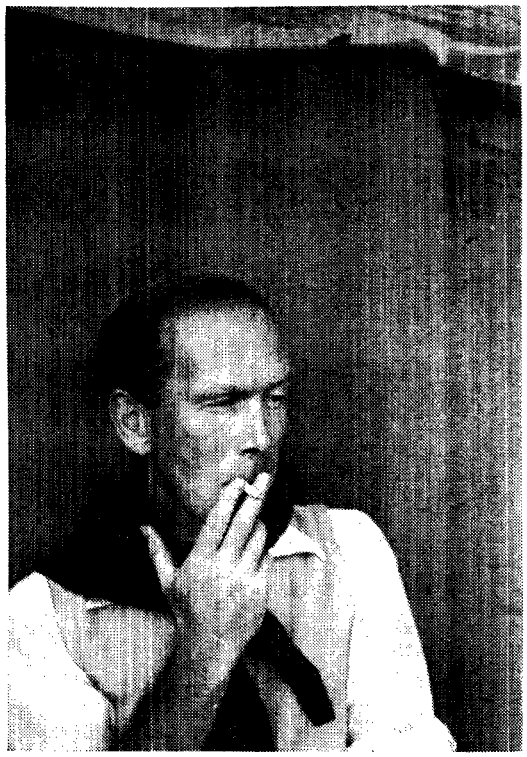
We asked Dave Brock, as an old friend of the Chronicle, what his column was about. He said, "Well, it's called 'Chips off the Old Brock' and it comes out three times a week. I'd say it had three purposes a week, too. One is to make silly things in the news look even sillier, if possible. Another is to prove that you can be almost literate and still have your readers understand you . . . if only in Victoria. And the third is to print a really sinister picture of me at the top of the column each time and scare hell out of little children; there is far too much freedom from fear these days, and that's bad for kids . . . gives 'em a wrong idea of life."



BROCK . . .

When Stu took over on August 1, he told his staff that their circulation was below that of their rival, the Colonist. This, he intimated, was plumb ridiculous. Knowing Stu and some of the others, we have a feeling that they'll be able to effect a good many changes. Maybe they can even change their picture of Dave from time to time . . . we hear they've had to change it once already, in response to a terrific popular demand. One woman (on the staff of U.B.C.) said of the first two pictures "They look like a flounder or halibut or one of those fish with both eyes on the same side of the nose." But Dave claims that's fine . . . It shows he's biased, same as anybody else.

SENATE APPROVES SOCIAL WORK AND COMMERCE SCHOOLS

Recent U.B.C. Board and Senate decisions have resulted in the formation of a School of Social Work and a School of Commerce on the University campus.

The Social Work program has developed steadily since 1943, when one year of Social Work existed, to the present time when Social Work students may receive a Masters Degree in Social Work. The U.B.C. School is one of four accredited schools in Canada, and is the largest graduate School of Social Work in the Dominion.

School Director, Marjorie J. Smith, recently appointed Chairman of the National Committee of Canadian Schools of Social Work has made extensive use of a "block placement" system of training which combines formal lecture sessions with a period of actual experience in various fields of social work. Under-graduates take this practical training in various parts of the province.

Announcement of the new School of Commerce coincides with a policy change and considerable modifications in the Commerce study program. School Director, Professor E. D. MacPhee, in consultation with a Commerce School Council composed of representatives of major faculties and departments of the University, has instituted a program that is frankly professional in outlook.

Dr. William G. Black, former U.B.C. faculty member, has been appointed as first regional liasion officer in B. C. for the Canadian citizenship branch.

He will serve as a channel of information and advice on all matters relating to the assimilation of immigrants.

GRADS PLAY 'BIRDS IN HOMECOMING FEATURE

"My, oh, my, how those grads do fly!" may well be the theme of ardent alumni as they witness the fifth annual Grads-'Birds basketball game at 8:00 p.m. in the old gymnasium.

Chief organizer and whip cracker of the 'Grad hoopsters will be Hiley Arkley, who himself played on Thunderbird teams of yesteryear.

Arkley will emphasize youth in his probable starting lineup but will rely heavily on the old guard to "round out" the team and bring his squad up to an ample twenty-five in number.

Players will be returning from the 1925 team that included such stalwarts as Arkley himself, Al. Buchanan, "Dad" Harley, Fred Newcombe, Swanzy Peck, Tom Wilkinson, Dal. Grauer and Arnold Henderson.

Other returnees will be: Bob Osborne, Frank Alpen, Bob Chapman, Cy Lee, from the 1931 team; Jim Bardsley, Rann Matthison, Ralph Henderson and Frank Turner from the 1937 Canadian championship team.

The 1941 team will be represented by Brud Matheson and Joe Ryan, stalwarts of one of the greatest teams in Thunderbird basketball history.

The 1945-46 P.N.I.A.C. championship team will send back Ron Weber, Harry Franklin, Sandy Robertson and Ritchie Nichol.

The dash of youth on the Grads squad will be supplied by graduating members of last year's 'Birds—Reid Mitchell, Norm Watt, Nev Munro and John Forsyth.

MATURITY

Maturity, like wisdom, friendship, learning and the other priceless intangibles which go to enrich the lives of men, cannot be purchased, rushed or gained in any other way than through the slow human progress of experience. Some men achieve neither maturity nor wisdom nor do they experience real friendship. For them life is tragic, fruitless and fraught with frustration.

Institutions, like men, mature. Some never do and those that do only arrive at maturity because of the struggle, wisdom and effort of the men who form the human core of that institution.

The University of British Clumbia is a young institution and like all youngsters growing up has tremendous enthusiasm, high ideals, and the crusading spirit of the pioneer. But maturity for many years was not one of her qualities. Compared to other Universities of this country—McGill, Toronto, or Dalhousie, our Alma Mater was a raw, green recruit, full of promise and burning ambition.

Gradually through the years since the days of the Fairview shacks, the moulding of U.B.C. into a great University has been steadily going on, imperceptible at times, startlingly apparent at others. The material has always been there and the moulders: Dr. Wesbrook, Dr. Klinck, Dr. Sedgewick, Dean Bollert, Dean Buchanan, Dr. Boving and the many other great men and women associated with her have been individually and collectively shaping U.B.C. little by little into her present form.

UNIVERSITY CORE

The core of any great learning institution must be around the study of the Humanities. And in this regard we have been fortunate in having from the beginning, outstanding teachers and scholars in this line. But that is not enough to have a complete University. All the Sciences and human pursuits must be explored by a University and it must have the curiosity and the facilities to pursue every question and activity interesting to man.

As U.B.C. has grown her interest in all subjects has widened and developed as the influence of individuals has played its part in branching her into every line of study. More money has meant better facilities and with the new faculty of medicine having been set up, preceded a few years by the Faculty of Law, by the Department of Pharmacy and very importantly by the Department of Graduate Studies, U.B.C. is on the threshold of being a mature, complete University.

The signs are everywhere. History has recorded that as any civilization has progressed and developed its development has been manifested by the growth of its Art and particularly by its works of permanent Architecture. Ages are remembered in many instances by the style of its architecture, by the look of its buildings and the more mature the civilization, the more permanent its architectural type.

ORMONDE HALL

On our campus the mushroom-like growth of permanent and fine buildings indicates the tremendous steps ahead the little college of the twenties and thirties has taken in the last few years. To be sure some of our new permanent building are neither good nor contemporary architecture, and save for the new gymnasium which is a beautiful structure, most of them will never be held in high regard for their beauty. But the permanent structure is there and is just another sign of the over-all development.

ALUMNI PIONEERS

In the Alumni Association, the maturity of the organization can be seen in the calibre of its officers. The early pioneers of the Alumni Association were all extremely fine, unselfish and competent persons, but in the most part like the University—young—giving the Association the fire and life it needed in those early days, but lacking the fine judgement and the experience that comes with maturity. Today the executive of the Alumni Association increasingly reads like the Board of Directors of a successful corporation; older, trained and experienced men capable of coping with the increasingly difficult problems the Alumni Association must face—increased budget, greater responsibility and so on.

Likewise our graduates are assuming places of greater responsibility all over the world—for the first time having her men and women appointed to the great councils of the world, judgeships, great businesses and the top places in the Arts.

Consider also the list of Honourary Graduates of U.B.C. and we analyze the stature of the men who are interested in and aiding our Univesity.

The University of British Columbia is like a flower bursting into bloom, the end result of many years of growth, nuture, care and struggle.

There is nothing tragic, fruitless or frustrating about the University of British Columbia which because of her great teachers and scholars is attaining maturity, wisdom and friendship with all men because her purpose is dedicated to learning and the understanding of the ways of men and life.

Professors Morrow and MacPhee Meet at Brock.

PROF. EARLE D. MacPHEE NEW COMMERCE HEAD

Professor Earle Douglas MacPhee has taken over the exacting position of Head of the Department of Commerce at U.B.C., filling the vacancy left by Professor E. H. Morrow when he retired last spring.

In 1920 he began to lecture in Psychology at Acadia University, transferring his activities to the University of Alberta in 1921. Three years later he became Associate Professor in Psychology at the University of Toronto, and in 1929 left the academic world for the world of commerce, as comptroller of the York Knitting Mills.

Since then his activities have carried him to the top in an amazing variety of major enterprises both in Canada and Britain.

In 1940 the Stirling bomber production line was smashed by German air raids. Professor MacPhee was given leave of absence from his company to set up factories throughout Britain for the restoration of Sterling production.

Asked what he considered to be the key to success in business, he rated friendliness, and the ability to meet and co-operate with people as most important; add to this a well-disciplined analytic mind, and good work habits, and business will welcome the university graduate.

On his return to Canada ,Professor MacPhee spent some months in examining programs and methods in schools of Commerce in eastern Canada and the United States and in interviewing former business associates on the possibilities of using U.B.C. Commerce graduates. He reports that businessmen generally are more ready to employ graduates in Commerce than graduates in Arts and Science; that many institutions are now setting up training programs for graduates with a view to their early introduction to executive responsibility; and that he has had most favorable comments on the character and competence of graduates of this University.

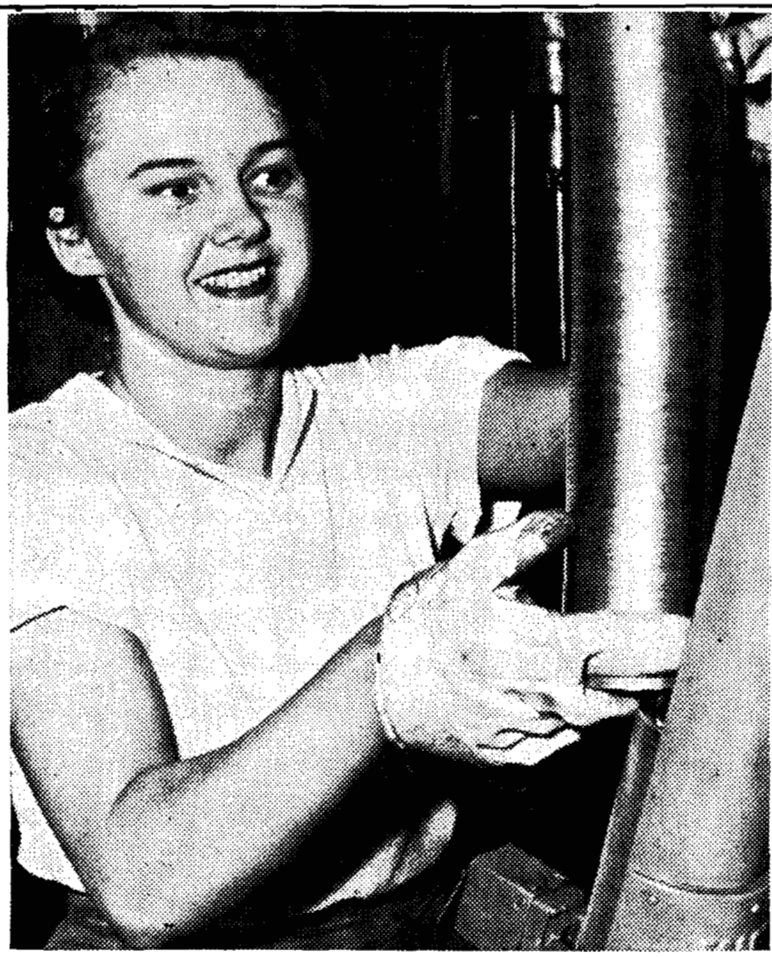
WOMEN

By MARY FALLIS



NONIE DONALDSON

The time has come to write "30" at the end of the column . . . time for a new editor to take over . . . time for a new viewpoint. We have been thinking over our impressions of the years with this column, six of them now, and there are some common denominations we might note.

Do you remember when the Chronicle was a sort of leaflet that came out once a year as a brief reminder to scattered Alumni, of their university associations? After the war by quite prodigious efforts under Editors Darryl Braidwood and Ormonde Hall, the Chronicle was established as a quarterly with a circulation of over nine thousand.

In the early stages no one ever communicated with us unless we made a mistake . . . usually in interpreting someone's achievements in some way . . . and you have no idea how hard it is to check information about absent grads . . . It was surprising the number of one's friends who complained about missing an issue of the Chronicle but never paid a cent to its support, and still don't realize that $3.00 to the Alumni Development Fund would at least pay for a Chronicle subscription.

Of late years it has come as something of a surprise to meet alumni from various parts of the province who are genuinely interested . . . to go off on a holiday and meet someone from the Cariboo . . . or the Okanagan . . . or the Island . . . who reads the Chronicle and follows alumni projects. This summer a Revelstoke grad told us that the women graduates there were going to make a donation to the Residences . . . had the money in the bank. We also discovered that many from the thirties are anticipating Class Reunions—twenty and twenty-five—with considerable pleasure.

Alumnae to appear most frequently in this column in six years include . . . DOROTHY TAYLOR '25, editor of the New Westminster Columbian, and a most successful animal-husband-woman . . . SALLY CREIGHTON '23, "veteran" lecturer and now free lance writer for radio . . . you may hear her this month at 10:15 p.m. Wednesdays, speaking on "Men, Women and Books", over C.B.R. . . . MARGARET ECKER FRANCIS, '36, now also a free lance writer, whose articles have earned her a national and international reputation . . . her latest public appearance has been as an adviser to Miss P.N.E., 1950 . . . We predict that undergrauate NONE DONALDSON '51, will join this outstanding group very shortly. With her, for the second time in U.B.C. history, a woman is President of the Alma Mater Society. Elected President of the Women's Undergraduate Society last spring, she stepped into the senior position when John Haar, A.M.S. President, resigned to accept a scholarship.

We have had a slight bias in reporting on the doings of teachers and grads from the years 1930-33 but then we couldn't help that . . . It's up to the Executive to see that you get a change of fare now. And we would like to say that there are jobs to be done in the alumni organization by more of our women, whether it be working on the local Scholarship Fund, or the Gymnasium Fund, or a Residence Fund. The university of our day facing the complex demands of modern society must enjoy the goodwill of more and more of its alumni.

Our favorite topic over the years has, of course, been the Residences. The three units for the women are—at press time still in process of completion. There will be a full report in the December issue.

During the summer a donation for furnishings was sent in by the PHRATERES ALUMNAE. The LADY LAURIER CLUB of Vancouver forwarded a generous gift of $250 to furnish a room.

MARY FALLIS LEAVES CHRONICLE

MARY FALLIS

For six years the full burden of reporting women's news for the Chronicle has fallen on the capable shoulders of Associate Editor Mary Fallis . . . it is no exaggeration to say that if it hadn't been for Mary there possibly would have been no women's section in this magazine and the gals would have had to pick out news items about their fair companions from the general pages of the Chronicle.

Many subjects have been commented on the pages of this section by the well informed Associate Editor who seems to have had friends among the Alumnae all over the globe . . . but the subject nearest her heart in the past two years has been the new Women's Residences and in that regard not only has Mary given faithful progress reports to Chronicle readers but has served on the Residences Committee as one of its strongest members.

Now pressure of other activities has forced Mary to give up her position on the Chronicle and we of the staff are all sorry to see her go . . . but we know she will be pursuing some other interest with the enthusiasm and the talent that enters into everything she does . . . and that some other good public cause will be that much better off—(ed. note).

ALUMNI - U.B.C. DEVELOPMENT FUND
A GAIN OF $3,718,00 OVER 1949

In October, 1948, the Alumni of U.B.C. boldly took action in creating the Alumni-U.B.C. Development Fund.

At that time, the purpose was explained as being threefold — to build a stronger Alumni, to develop stronger Alumni friendships and thirdly to give tangible evidence of the Alumni's continuing interest in our Alma Mater.

Today, there is evidence that in all three respects, progress is being made and that our Association is on the right road.

Your Fund Board of Directors accepted the challenge of the Alumni Executive, to launch our Program—the first of its kind in Canada.

Our task of setting up the Program naturally encountered many obstacles and our progress was retarded by our lack of experience—but in spite of our mistakes we did achieve some considerable success even in our first year.

With excellent co-operation from the Alumni Executive and the Executive Secretary, last year troubles have been ironed out, and as you know, this year, we are able to pass along to the objectives 100% of every dollar sent to the Fund.

The results are very gratifying to your Directors and we trust, to you; for we are able to support the Sedgewick Memorial Fund with $2,500.00. The Women's Residence Furnishings Fund with $5,000.00, Scholarships are to be provided with $2,500.00, the balance to the University for various purposes.

All this has been achieved by your tangible and practical co-operation and with the very genuine interest and efforts of all the Class Managers who has worked so consistently for the Program.

The Directors have asked me to thank the Class Managers who have given so generously of their time and devoted so much voluntary effort to the program again this year.

May I just add my very sincere and personal thanks to all the Directors, for their kind guidance and advice during the past two years. Their interest on behalf of the Almuni has been a genuine inspiration and encouragement. It has been an interesting experience to have served as your Chairman—an investment in friendship that will be long remembered.

Joe Brown.

1845 ALUMNI CONTRIBUTORS

That tradition which has guided and inspired U.B.C. men and women—a spirit of voluntary, individual effort—is again illustrated in the 1950 Alumni-U.B.C. Development Fund report.

Some 1845 individual alumni, together with other friends of the University and various clubs and organizations have raised $15,393.00. This represents an increase in participation from 18% to 19.1% among alumni and in amount donated by more than $3,000.00. At first glance, the aggregate may not seem impressive, but it assuredly is when one remembers that the yearly fund total is comparable to the income from an endowment. And, to obtain yearly income of $15,000.00, it would be necessary to establish a half-million dollar endowment fund.

Another important development in this second year of operation was the agreement reached between the University and the Alumni Association. This permits 100% of each contribution to be turned over for the purposes stated, without deduction for expenses either direct or indirect.

GREATER APPEAL

The greater diversification in both stated objectives and other specific projects supported by individual donors is a healthy sign indeed. This should maintain the democratic nature of the Fund and create an ever-wider appeal to alumni and friends of the University.

For the second successive year, the class of 1917 had the highest participation record among all classes. Their winning percentage this year was 70%, as against 55.5% in 1949. The class of 1948, with an increase in donors from 139 to 162, and in participation from 12.4% to 14.5,% lead all classes in total amount contributed with a highly reprectable $1,111.00 total compared to $658.00 in '49. Incidentally, 1948's total is only the second above the $1,000.00 mark—the other being the class of '22's excellent Fund-starting effort of $1,785.00

Probably the two classes which showed the greatest improvement during the year were 1924 and 1929. Donors in the class of '24 jumped from 34 to 57 (increasing class participation from 26.9% to 45.2%), and from $333.00 to $571.00 in amount. In the class participation standings, they moved from 10th place to 3rd, and in amounts, from 11th to 5th.

Total donors in '29 increased from 40 to 60 (in participation from 21.1% to 31.7%), and from $261.00 to $353.00 in amount. They moved up the participation ladder from 17th to 12th, and in amounts, from 21st to 16th.

TOPS $15,393.00 TOTAL

A year ago I was pleased to comment on the first report of the Alumni - U.B.C. Development Fund. At that time I was most encouraged to see evidence of a response from alumni members that exceeded my expectations and, I am sure, those of the Fund Committee members. I could not have anticipated a more favourable reaction to an infant campaign. This year again my greatest expectations have been exceeded.

I choose to refer initially to the pattern of expansion that has been a feature of this program of giving. Although the financial support of the Alumni is needed and funds that accrue through your generosity are used in many ways, I believe that more important than this is the good-will that is engendered in such campaigns.

The more than fifteen thousand dollars contributed this year could be compared to the annual income derived from the interest on an endowment of a half-million dollars. For that important reason, many universities and alumni groups refer to these funds as "living endowments". Not only have more than 1800 former undergraduates of this institution donated but other holders of honorary degrees have given generously as well.

In conclusion, I should like to thank personally, and on behalf of the Senate and Board of Governors, all those who participated in this Alumni "living endowment" Fund this year. Although I am certain that no one person can or would take credit for the success of the Fund activities to date I offer our congratulations to Mr. Joseph Brown, Jr., Chairman of the Alumni-U.B.C. Development Fund's Board of Directors, with the hope that he will convey our sentiments to all who assisted him. In addition, we would commend the entire Alumni Association membership through its president, Mr. John M. Buchanan, for the role it has played in initiating and sponsoring this undertaking.

We are aware and grateful of the fact that considerable funds have been placed at our disposal for much needed projects. We are aware also that an intangible asset has been created whose value cannot be measured; we have the goodwill and support of a growing Alumni group.

Yours sincerely,

Norman MacKenzie.

NORTHERN CALIFORNIA

Bob and Ruth Roberts, '40, have concluded their stay at U. C. and expect to settle down at an Eastern University this fall.

It will be news to some members of the Branch, at least among the Engineers to learn from the Chronicle that Jean Burton, '24, is the author of a series of books most of which were published by the discriminating and fastidious man Knopf.

Kenneth Creighton, '46, was scheduled to join the ranks of married men in June.

Percy Barr, '24, made a fast trip in July to Detroit as a Red Cross delegate. Currently he is serving on the U. C. Committee; which has the un--enviable task of appraising for the Regents, certain members who have not signed the famous oath.

In April Doug. McCawley, '49, became the father of a boy. He went to Vancouver recently, doubtless to relate the story firsthand to his ex-classmates.

PENTICTON

The Annual General Meeting of the Penticton Branch of the U.B.C. Alumni Association will be held at Mrs. H. Hatfield's home, 687 Vancouver Avenue, Penticton, on Sunday, October 29th, starting at 8:00 p.m.

Business will include election of the executive for the coming year, and a report from our prosperous hard-working film committee. (Winner of the 1950 bursary was David Davenport who is now attending U.B.C. with the intention of entering Law).

TORONTO

At the 15th Annual Western University's Dance about forty-five U.B.C. Alumni in Toronto gathered at the Royal York Hotel with Alumni of the Universities of Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba to renew old friendships and meet the newcomers to Toronto.

Wearing blue and gold ribbons, the U.B.C. grads were outnumbered by about two hundred and fifty other Western Alumni in the gaily decorated Crystal Ballroom, but there was no doubt about their presence when the band played the traditional college medley and they sang the familiar words "Hail U. B. C."

Representing U.B.C. on the Committee for the dance were: Roy Jackson, Chairman, Verda MacGillvray, Michael Young and Mr. and Mrs. Pierre Berton, (Janet Walker).

VICTORIA

The Second Annual "Varsity Trek" will again be sponsored by the Victoria Branch of the U.B.C. Alumni Association, and will be held on Friday, October 27th at the Club Sirocco in Victoria.

Victoria President Harold G. McWilliams and Secretary Gloria Kendall, heading up the Dance Committee, wish to remind U.B.C. alumni on Vancouver Island as well as Victoria College alumni that tickets may be obtained at the Marionette in Victoria, or from the following Committee members: Jack Parnell (G9959), Bill McCarter (G3795), Gloria Kendall (E4164), or Mrs. Harry Gibb (B4472).

Dancing will be from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m., to the music of Len Acre's Orchestra, with dress optional. Proceeds will go to the Almuni-U.B.C. Development Fund.

OTTAWA

The visit of Mr. Frank Turner to Ottawa coincided with a meeting of the Ottawa Branch of the U.B.C. Alumni at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Whiteley. Dr. Allon Peebles, the British President, welcomed Mr. Turner to Ottawa.

Mr. Turner outlined the history of the U.B.C. Development Fund and its relation to the U.B.C. Alumni.

During the discussion that took place after Mr. Turner's talk, it was decided that the Ottawa Branch should attempt some project that would be of benefit to the University. The question of scholarships was brought up and discussed but the project finally agreed on was that the Ottawa Branch, because of its location in the Federal capital, should investigate the possibilities of having the Income Tax exemptions raised for those parents who are sending their children to University and also of having the age limit to which the present exemptions apply, raised. A committee of three was appointed to make a preliminary investigation into this question.

Members present at the meeting were: Dr. Allon Peebles, President, and Mrs. Peebles, Mr. A. J. Nash, Vice-president and Mrs. Nash, Miss Margaret Pilmer, vice-president, Miss Bonnie McIntosh, secretary-treasurer, Mr and Mrs. A. S. Whiteley, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. FRANKLY SPEAKING

BY
ALUMNI SECRETARY-MANAGER

Every now and then people recall a Chronicle editorial of two years ago, an editorial which won a first-place award for editorial achievement for this magazine in the annual International competition among alumni publications sponsored by the American Alumni Council. This editorial expressed grave concern over the apparent wholesale exportation of Canadian University graduates to the United States.

With your permission therefore, I should like to quote Mr. Hall Linton, Advertising Manager, Maclean's Magazine, and an alumnus of the University of Toronto.

"In my early days in the magazine field," stated Mr. Linton, "I was sent on a business trip to Cleveland. On the notice board of the leading hotel, I saw the announcement of a University of Toronto class reunion; the engineering division of my class, all working in Cleveland and vicinity. I hung around and found a group meeting there in that American city larger than could have been brought together in any Canadian city at that time. That was 25 years ago."

"What of today? This Spring, there were 69 Canadians in the business course at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. A poll was made to find out what they planned to do after they had finished their course. Every one of them intends to come back to Canada."

"Why?"

"An editorial colleague of mine says it's the Pull of Canadianism. I think it is. It is a pull that is strengthening every day."

ALUMNOTES:—Robert Lenardon (Arts '49) has won a teaching fellowship at the University of Cincinnati where he will enter his first year of his Doctorate, studying under Dr. Malcolm McGregor (B.A. '30). . . . Good luck to Eileen Moyles (B.A. '50), a former Student Councillor, in her new position in the Statistics Department, Ottawa . . . More of the same to Bruce Smith (Teachers' Training '48), who's gone from Trail to the staff of Airport School, Abbotsford . . . Alumini office visitors included John Thwaites (B.A. '40), Ottawa, and former U.B.C. cricketer. Especial thanks to John for leaving records of the U.B.C. Amateur Radio Society's activities a few years back . . . J. Allan Wallace (B.A. Sc. '41), studying in the Geology Department at Stanford under a Socony-Vacuum Oil Co. fellowship, also dropped in. Allan, a former Thunderbird rugger, had a nice chat with Al Drysdale (B.A. '41) while in B. C., the latter's now Manager of the S-½ Diamond Dude Ranch in Skookemchuck . . . Congratulations to Gladys Schwesinger, a member of U.B.C.'s first gratudating class in 1916 and a Ph.D. from Columbia, upon her election as President of the International Council of Women Psychologists, for 1949-51. She is Senior Clinical Psychologist, California Youth Authority . . . Visiting from Kamloops was Tony Greer, a Past-President of U.B.C.'s Branch 72 of the Canadian Legion . . . Now Technical Adviser to H. J. Bird & Co. is W. H. (Bill) Patmore (B.A. '35) . . . Jean Witbeck (B.A. '32), one of the Fund's Class Managers, received an interesting letter from the Hugh Ormsby's ('32). After two year's of extensive travel and study, Dr. Hugh and family (2 boys and 1 girl) have settled in Toronto. He is the first Ophthalmologist in Canada to hold the F.R.C.S. degree by examination. Another summer visitor was Prof. Lionel Stevenson (B.A. '22), organizer of the Southern California Branch, and Cora and Les McLennan (both '22), the latter being the organizer of the Northern California Chapter . . . Over from England, for the first time since 1927 was Dr. Roy Vollum (B.A. '19), now Director of Public Health Lab., Oxford, and Bacteriologist to the Radcliffe Informary there. Roy was informally entertained by Leroy Wright (B.A. '17),

Lawyer's Correspondence With President Indicates Need for University Financial Bequests

Dr. N. A. M. MacKenzie:

Dear Sir:

A client of ours proposes to leave what may be a substantial amount of money, $15,000.00 or $20,000.00 to the University for the purpose of assisting deserving young men and women in their college work. She is quite young, in the neighbourhood of 40, a graduate of your University. We have one or two other clients who are seriously considering the same possibility and it occurred to me that you might make some suggestions as to the form in which the bequest should be left and some indication of the uses to which it could be put, having in mind that their feelings are that it should be used, as I said before, to help promising students who have not sufficient funds of their own, to complete their University education.

If you would outline what you consider the best method of handling the fund and through what channels it should be handled, we would then be able to pass this information on to those who might have in mind some such a gift to the University on their death.

Yours very truly,

(Signed) "Chas. J. White",
Barrister

Dear Mr. White:

Thanks for your letter of September 20th. It is most encouraging to learn of the intentions of your client. I cannot think of anyting that is likely to contribute more to the community and the nation in the long run, than actions of this kind. Some of our most promising youngsters come from families that can do little, if anything, to help them financially. All of these youngsters work during the summer months, and, as far as it is possible, during the winter months as well, but even this does not provide enough income to pay all of their expenses. In addition, it makes it difficult for them to find the time and the energy to give to their studies.

I am taking your letter up with Dean Walter Gage, who is Chairman of our Committee on Prizes, Scholarships, Bursaries and Loans. In consultation with him, I will prepare an appropriate proposal for your consideration. It might also be used in the other cases that you mention.

Thanking you for your interest in the welfare of our students and of the University, I remain

Yours sincerely,
N. A. M. MacKENZIE.

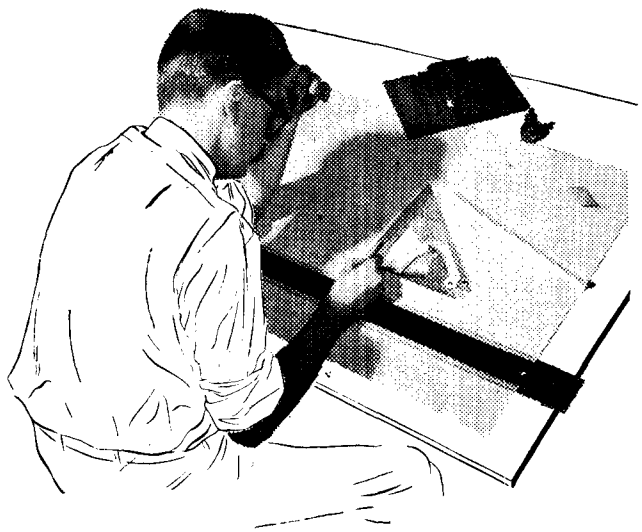
A REFLECTION FOR MANAGEMENT

poor lighting slows down ANY business . . .



● Poor lighting is bad business for you, Mr. Manager—it costs you money in the reduced efficiency of your staff. Bad lighting or harsh lighting produce glare and shadows that mean eyestrain and fatigue.

Good lighting is planned lighting. It increases production, reduces wastage and accidents and improves morale among your employees. It's easy to find out if your lighting is giving you these "pay-off" values. You can get the free advice of a competent illumination engineer by calling our Lighting Department, 570 Dunsmuir Street in Vancouver, TAtlow 3171, or at 1503 Douglas Street, Victoria, Garden 7121, or any of our Lower Mainland branches.

Special Congregation Ceremony Marks Medical School Opening

Three Medical Men Given Honorary Degrees

In a special congregation ceremony, on September 27th, at 3:30 p.m. U.B.C. Chancellor Eric Hamber conferred the Honorary Degree of Doctor of Science on three distinguished physicians. The event took place in the University Gymnasium, and marked the opening of the Faculty of Medicine as well as the Golden Jubilee of the B. C. Medical Association.

Degree recipients were Dr. Detlev Bronk, President of Johns Hopkins Univesity; Dr. James Bertram Collip, Dean of the Faculty of Medicine at the University of Western Ontario, and Director of the Medical Research Division of Canada's National Research Council; and Dr. Ray Fletcher Farquharson, Professor of Medicine at the University of Toronto and a distinguished President of Canada's Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons.

The Opening of the Medical School was the realization of a dream of many years that started when Dr. F. F. Wesbrook, during his term as President of the University, visualized a medical school as one of the professional schools expected in a great provincial University.

Dean Myron M. Weaver is a well qualified Doctor holding M.S., Ph.D., and M.D. degrees from the University of Chicago. He was assistant Dean at the University of Minnesota prior to coming to U.B.C. this year.

Dr. Lawrence E. Ranta, who has been associated with the department of bacteriology and preventive medicine for the past eleven years, will serve as assistant to the Dean; the department of anatomy is headed by Dr. Sydney M. Friedman, who has as his associates, Dr. William Gibson, research clinical associate professor of neurology, and Dr. Paris Constantinides; Dr. Marvin Darrach is professor and chairman of the department of biochemistry and has as his associate, Dr. Sidney H. Zarsky; the department of physiology is headed by Dr. D. Harold Copp, who has as his associate Dr. Edgar C. Black; Dr. Robert Kerr is professor and head of the department of medicine, and Dr. H. Rocke Robertson occupies the corresponding position in the department of surgery.

Sixty students comprise the first medical class in U.B.C. history and they were screened from 350 applicants. The final two years of the medical course for the first class are devoted to clinical training and this will cause some complications as they will have to take their training at the Vancouver General Hospital where there are facilities for this training.

This is only the beginning but one thing is sure. The University has attracted very fine men for the nucleous of her new faculty and when the proper facilities are obtained, U.B.C. should be one of the top flight medical schools of the continent.

STUDENTS PLAN GALA HOMECOMING

Feature of the homecoming program will be the U.B.C.-Northern Idaho football game at 2:15 p.m. on November 4th at U.B.C. Stadium.

The "Bengals" from Lewiston, Idaho, coached by Paul Wise, are undefeated at this writing, boasting victories over St. Martins, Central Washington and Eastern Oregon College.

The Thunderbirds lost last year's tilt against the Bengals by a narrow 14-13 margin on the strength of a completed pass into touchdown territory on the last play of the game.

Half-time festivities will take the form of a giant parade with floats depicting the history of student activity from the time of the trek. Tying in with the theme will be the presentation of the first annual "Trekker of the Year" award to Joe Brown, chairman of the U.B.C. alumni development fund during the last two years and one of the small band of originals who made the journey from the Fairview shacks to Point Grey.

A sprinkling of feminine pulchritude will enhance the appearance of the parade at regularly spaced intervals. The homecoming queen contestants will parade before the stands and one of the candidates will be chosen to preside over the activities during the rest of the day.

Tickets for the game may be obtained from Percy Hicks Ticket Bureau, 610 Dunsmuir Street, until 11:00 a.m. the day of the game. Ticket sales start at the Stadium at 1:00 p.m.

MEN'S ATHLETIC DIRECTORATE ISSUES STATEMENT

As a result of the crisis in football during the last few weeks the following statement was issued by the men's athletic directorate at U.B.C.:

The situation in football at the University of British Columbia is critical. Player turnouts have failed to live up to expectations, which means that the football coaches have been, and are, unable to field a team which has the required depth in numbers. For this reason, definite action must be taken in an attempt to increase player turnout in future years, or, as an alternative, football must be dropped from the athletic program at U.B.C.

A decision on the status of football must be made prior to a meeting of the Evergreen Conference in Spokane on November 24th. If football is discontinued, the University will be asked to withdraw from the Conference, since full participation in each of four major sports, Football, Basketball, Track and Baseball, is a requisite for Conference membership. Possible alternatives would be to compete in other sports on an independent basis at the college level, revert to competition against local commercial teams, or restrict athletic activity to intramural leagues operating within the confines of the University.

Until such time as a decision has been made by University authorities, we ask for the full support of the student body, alumni and the general public.

☆ UNKNOWN ADDRESSES ☆

Next Spring will see the tri-annual Senate elections to decide the 15 elected positions on that body, and it is therefore imperative that every effort be made in the few ensuing months to try to trace as many "unknowns" as possible.

With this in mind, the Chronicle editors have printed on these pages the current "unknowns" in the graduating years of 1916 to 1934 inclusive. Your help in scanning these names and supplying the Alumni office, Room 201, Brock Hall, U.B.C. with any correct addresses you have will be greatly appreciated.

Act. Sub-Lieut. Doug Sherlock

The aim of the University Naval Training Program is to produce officers for absorption by the permanent and reserve forces. The graduation from the Cadet ranks of Doug Sherlock in the spring of 1950 with the rank of Acting Sub Lieutenant, his entry into the Royal Canadian Navy Reserve and his subsequent service on board the destroyer "Athabaskan" during the past summer gives some indication of the potentialities of the training program.

The Cadet training program is four years in length. This enables all freshmen to join, whether or not they have senior matriculation. A freshman entering University makes application, is tested for general ability and aptitude, medically examined, then interviewed. If he is found suitable he is attested as an ordinary seaman in the service branch most closely related to his academic studies.

On completion of four winters of training and two summers as required the Cadet becomes eligible for promotion to the rank of Acting Sub Lieutenant. On graduation from the University he becomes a confirmed Sub Lieutenant in the reserve forces.

A Cadet desiring to enter the permanent force may make application to do so at the end of his fourth year at the University. If he is accepted he is given a leave of absence of one year in order to complete his degree. On graduation he goes into the permanent force as an Acting Sub Lieutenant.
