

CHAPTER 53.

An Act to Establish and Incorporate a University for the Province of British Columbia.

[7th March, 1908.]

WHEREAS it is desirable to establish, in and for the whole Province of British Columbia, one University, for the purpose of providing facilities for Higher Education in all its branches :

Therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of British Columbia, enacts as follows :—

Short Title.

1. This Act may be cited as the “ British Columbia University Act, Short title. 1908.”

Incorporation.

2. A University, to be called “The University of British Columbia,” consisting of a Chancellor, Convocation, Board of Governors, Senate, and Faculty or Faculties, is hereby established in the Province as a body politic and corporate.

Property Powers.

3. The said corporation may acquire, by gift, purchase, or any other manner, and hold for the purposes of the said University, any and all property, real and personal, of every nature and kind whatsoever; and, subject to the terms of any gift, devise, or bequest of any property to the University, shall have power to mortgage, sell, transfer, or otherwise dispose of all its property, real or personal, and to make and execute all necessary and proper conveyances or transfers for carrying the same into effect.

Investments.

4. The said Corporation shall have power to invest for the benefit of the University all or any sums of money belonging to it and available for investment in any of the following securities: the bonds, stocks, debentures or securities of the Dominion of Canada or of any Province thereof; the debentures of any municipality in the Province; or first mortgages of any freehold property in the Province, or the purchase of rental-bearing real estate therein; and shall have full power and authority to take, hold and dispose of any real or personal property therein for the purposes aforesaid, or lease for a period of not more than twenty-one years.

Mortgaged property.

5. The said Corporation shall have power to acquire, take and hold all such property, both real and personal, as shall be bonâ fide mortgaged, hypothecated or pledged to it by way of security, or conveyed to it in satisfaction of debts previously contracted or purchased at judicial sales upon levy for such indebtedness, or otherwise purchased for the purpose of avoiding a loss to the University in respect thereof or to the owners thereof.

Real property of the University not to be expropriated.

6. Real property which shall at any time be vested in the University shall not be liable to be entered upon, used or taken by any municipal or other corporation, or by any person possessing the right of taking lands compulsorily for any purpose whatsoever; and no power to expropriate real property hereafter conferred shall extend to such real property, unless in the Act conferring the power it is made in express terms to apply to such real property.

Expropriation by University.

7. The University shall have full power and authority, without the consent of the owner thereof or of any person interested therein, to enter upon, take and appropriate all such real property as may be deemed necessary for the purposes of the University, making due compensation therefor to the person or persons entitled thereto:

- (b.) In the event of no mutual agreement as to amount of compensation being arrived at within the period of sixty days from the date of such entry, then in that event the amount of compensation shall be fixed and determined by two arbitrators, one to be appointed by the University and the other by the party or parties owning the land so taken:
- (c.) The two arbitrators so appointed shall have power to appoint an umpire:
- (d.) The provisions of the Arbitration Act shall apply to and govern such arbitration.

Application of Statute of Limitations with reference to real property vested in University.

8. All real property which is now, or which hereafter shall be, vested in the University shall, as far as the application thereof of any Statute of Limitations is concerned, be in the same position as real property vested in the Crown for the public uses of the Province.

Instruction.

9. The University shall, so far as and to the full extent which its Instruction. resources from time to time permit, provide for:

- (a.) Such instruction in all branches of liberal education as may enable students to become proficient in and qualify for degrees, diplomas and certificates in science, commerce, arts, literature, law, medicine, and all other branches of knowledge:
- (b.) Such instruction especially, whether theoretical, technical, artistic or otherwise, as may be of service to persons engaged or about to engage in the manufactures, mining, engineering, agricultural, and industrial pursuits of the Province of British Columbia:
- (c.) Facilities for the prosecution of original research in science, literature, arts, medicine, law and especially the applications of science:
- (d.) Such fellowships, scholarships, exhibitions, prizes and rewards and pecuniary and other aids as shall facilitate or encourage proficiency in the subjects taught in the University and also original research in every branch:
- (e.) Such extra-collegiate and extra-university instruction and teaching as may be recommended by the Senate.

There shall be a President of the University who shall be the Chief Executive Officer thereof, and shall have general supervision of and direction over the academic work of the University and the teaching staff thereof and the officers and servants employed in or in connection with such work, including the Registrar of the University, and shall have such other powers and perform such other duties as from time to time may be conferred upon or assigned to him by the Board. President of the University.

87. The President shall be ex-officio a member of all Faculties, Dean of the Faculty of Arts, Chairman of the Senate, and in the absence of the Chancellor he shall be Chairman of Convocation and confer degrees. Offices to be held by the President.

- 88. It shall be the duty of the President and he shall have power:— Powers of the President.
- (a.) To suspend any member of the teaching staff of the University and any officer or servant thereof. When he shall exercise such power he shall forthwith report his action to the Board of Governors with a statement of his reasons therefor :

- (b.) To make recommendations to the Board of Governors respecting all appointments to and promotions in and removals from the teaching staff of the University, or any of the officers and servants thereof :
- (c.) To summon meetings of any Faculty whenever he may deem it necessary to do so, and at his discretion convene joint meetings of all the Faculties or any two or more of them.

Enumerated powers not to limit general powers of President.

89. The enumeration of the express powers mentioned in sub-sections (a) to (c), inclusive, shall not be taken to limit the general powers conferred by section 86.

Reports by President.

90. The President shall report annually to the Board and the Senate upon the progress and efficiency of the academic work of the University, and as to progress and requirements, and make such recommendation thereon as he may deem necessary, and he shall also report upon any matter which may be referred to him by the Board or by the Senate.

The Registrar.

Registrar of University.

91. There shall be a Registrar of the University, to be appointed by the Board of Governors, and it shall be his duty to keep all necessary records and accounts, and to perform such other duties as may be required of him by the Senate, or Board of Governors.

Term of office.

92. The Registrar shall hold office during the pleasure of the Board of Governors, and in the event of disability or absence from the Province of the Registrar, the said Board may appoint some other person to act as Registrar during such disability or absence.

Acting Registrar.

93. The acting Registrar shall, during such disability or absence, perform the duties and have all the powers of the Registrar.

Affiliation of Normal Schools.

Affiliation of Normal School with University.

94. Any Normal School organised by the Department of Education for the instruction and training of teachers in the science of education and the art of teaching may be affiliated with the University, upon such terms and conditions, not repugnant to any law or system of education in force in the Province, as the Senate may think fit, provided that the terms and conditions of the affiliation of any such Normal School shall be subject to the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council.

The University to be Non-sectarian.

The University to be Non-sectarian.

95. The University shall be strictly non-sectarian in principle, and no religious creed or dogma shall be taught :

- (a.) No religious test shall be required of any professor, teacher, lecturer, or student or servant of the University, nor shall religious observances, according to the forms of any particular religious denomination or otherwise, be imposed on them or any of them, but the Senate may make regulations touching the moral conduct of the students :

- (b.) Nothing herein contained shall interfere with the right of any affiliated College to make such provision in regard to religious instruction and religious worship for its own students as it may deem proper, and to require the same to be observed as a part of its own discipline.

Affiliated Theological Colleges.

96. Every incorporated theological college hereafter affiliated with the University may, notwithstanding such affiliation, have power to confer the degree of Bachelor of Divinity, provided that such candidate for such degree must be a graduate of some one faculty of the University of British Columbia or of some other University recognised for that purpose by the University of British Columbia.

Degrees conferred by affiliated Theological Colleges.

Education of Women.

97. The Senate shall make all provision for the education of women in the University, in such manner as it shall deem most fitting; provided, however, that no woman by reason of her sex shall be deprived of any advantage or privilege accorded to male students of the University.

Education of women. •

Attendance and Enrolment of Students.

98. All students proceeding to any degree (except in cases for which special provision shall be made) shall be enrolled in the University.

Attendance and enrolment of students.

99. Persons who have not received their instruction in the University, or in any affiliated College or Institution, may be admitted as candidates for examination for standing or for any degrees, honours, scholarships or certificates of proficiency authorised to be granted or conferred by the University, on such conditions as the Senate may from time to time determine.

Senate may admit candidates who have not been students of the University.

100. No student enrolled in any affiliated College or Institution shall be permitted to present himself for any University examination subsequent to that of matriculation, without producing a certificate that he has complied with the requirements of such affiliated College or Institution affecting his admission to such examination.

Requirements for examinations.

101. The Senate, under such conditions as it may from time to time determine, may, upon application in that behalf, allow to persons holding certificates of having passed other examinations, such standing thereon as it may think fit.

Senate may grant certain standing to persons holding certain certificates.

Instruction in Arts.

Instruction in arts. 102. Instruction in arts in the University (except post-graduate instruction) shall be free to all regular students matriculated in the University, and who enter their names with the Registrar of the University, also to students enrolled in an affiliated Normal School; but this provision shall not include exemption from laboratory fees.

Endowments.

Endowments. 103. Any person or Corporation may, with the approval of the Senate, found one or more professorships, lectureships, fellowships, scholarships, exhibitions, prizes or other rewards in the University, by providing a sufficient endowment in land or other property and conveying the same to the University for such purposes, and every such endowment of lands or other property shall be vested in the University for the purpose or purposes for which it is given.

Repealing clause. 104. Chapter 188 of the Revised Statutes of 1897, being "An Act respecting the University of British Columbia," is hereby repealed.
