Hamber To Officiate At Brock Memorial Opening

Ceremonial Presentation of Key Will Be Followed by Tea Served

The long awaited, much heralded and twice postponed official opening of the new Brock Memorial Men's and Women's Union will take place today. Acting Honour Lieutenant-Governor Eric W. Hamber will turn the official key of the new union over to the 2,500 U.B.C. students who were instrumental in building it.

G秘SS-BASTEONE

Clasping between years of struggle and students, the key of the new union will be handed over to needed medical headquarters for the first time. It is a key which will be preserved in the Alma Mater Society records, and will be handed over to succeeding Lieutenant-Governors for safekeeping.

At 3:00 p.m. a procession will form at the Administration building and proceed towards the auditorium. After a brief ceremony, Hamber will turn the key over to Lieutenant-Governor John Pearson, who will, in turn, turn the key over to the President of the Alma Mater Society, the Honorary President, the Dean of Men, and the Dean of Women.

The key ceremony is followed by the official opening of the union, which will be attended by the Acting Lieutenant-Governor, Eric W. Hamber, Dr. John Pearson, the President of the Alma Mater Society, and other dignitaries.

Radio Drama Competition Next Month

Braidwood Plans Program For Three Canadian Radio Drama Societies

Three Western Canada Universities will present their radio drama programs at the Brock Memorial Opening Ball next month, to compete in a radio drama competition. The programs will be presented by the Musical Society of the University of British Columbia, the Drama Society of the University of Alberta, and the Theatre Guild of the University of Saskatchewan.

Local Entertainers

The competition will consist of three parts: The first part will be an oral presentation of the program, the second part will be a written presentation of the program, and the third part will be a live performance of the program. The competition will be judged by a panel of judges, including representatives from the broadcasting industry.

The competition will take place on Friday, March 1 at 8:00 p.m. in the Brock Union. The winner will be announced on the same day, and the winning program will be broadcast on radio stations across Canada.

The competition is open to all students enrolled in the University, and the deadline for entries is February 28. For more information, please contact the Brock Union office.
The UBC campus is currently being reshaped in the eyes of students. This week, the student newspaper, The Ubussey, reported on the recent changes and their impact on the campus community.

The Editorial staff of The Ubussey, including editors Richard Mackenzie and Doug Wegg, expressed their concern about the recent changes. They noted that the student body was divided on the issue, with some students welcoming the changes and others opposing them. The editorial also highlighted the impact of the changes on the university's academic programs and student life.

The news column, "Crackling of Thorns," written by B. R. K. Man, discussed the recent events at the campus. According to the column, the changes were causing a great deal of anxiety among the students. The columnist expressed his concern about the impact of the changes on the university's reputation and future.

The column also raised questions about the role of the university administration in the current situation. The columnist called for a transparent and accountable approach to the changes, and expressed the need for more involvement of the students in the decision-making process.

The Ubussey's "Letters to the Editor" section included a letter from a student named John Smith, who praised the university administration for their efforts to make the campus more inclusive and diverse. He expressed his support for the changes and called for continued progress in this direction.

The "Monthly Report" section of The Ubussey included an article about a recent lecture on the topic of "The Future of Science." The article highlighted the importance of scientific research and its impact on society. The columnist called for continued support for scientific research and education.

Overall, The Ubussey's coverage of the campus changes reflects the diversity of opinions and concerns among the students. The newspaper's staff and columnists are actively engaged in the dialogue and are committed to providing a platform for the exchange of ideas and perspectives.
