The University In Our Town

In discovering the "arty" people also buy newspapers like everyone else, I have become aware of what some consider to be the "university atmosphere" that surrounds the campus, and that what campus means to the students. It is a district that has been called the University Armory. Let us hope it comes off as a success.

The campus has passed along bouquets to the theatrical example of what not to do with 5000 people. Our Town" supplement. The nice words point to the University, and its art, as an example of what to do with 5000 people. Let us hope it comes off as a success.

Don't let them drink, it's against university regulations.

COUNCIL NEED JIMMY BROCK LOCK NO MORE

Council met new term and go as it pleased, Council decided Monday.

At the Monday meeting, councilors granted themselves a day off. at the Aims State Society office in York Hall, so that they might get the place after hours.

For business minutes of course.

Some members felt, however, that the temptation to bring their friends into the offices for "small parties" would be too much for them, and all members voted reluctantly not to allow any friends to the offices after hours.

US 'Mentally Isolated' Says Delegate To UN

Mehta of India Claims American Pragmatic Outlook Frustating

A delegate from India at United Nations v USA National Congress Tuesday that Americans as individuals are "mentally isolated" from the rest of mankind.

The delegate was Dr. Nehru, who has worked in close cooperation with Prime Minister Mehta Ever. He is a social worker of the University of Bombay.

The American, the Indian explained philosophically, does not "think in terms of his own race, the American individual is a thinking man, the world is in terms of 'you', is he declared.

"The trend of the world," Mr. Mehta said, "is towards a more objective, more international outlook.

"The American people, in my opinion, are slowly becoming internationally minded."

CANADIAN RED CROSS
Senior Rugby Teams Square Off Today

Action will be the keynote today when the Vanady and UBC teams meet in their yearly rugby classic at the stadium.

Both teams have been working on their first two weeks and are experiencing a marked improvement over last year's fair showing, according to their respective managers.

A MUTUALLY explained reason for the teams' improved play is the value of contributions from the suburbs, particularly Burnaby.

Both teams have been practicing in the suburbs and several of last year's suburbs have returned and are setting a good pace.

The key point of the junior team will become McInerneys and Foulds with stand-outs being Beattie and Davies.

The team manager of the seniors will be Bob Foulds, McInerney and Walter, second row, and Foulds.

Counts and Chisholm are in the third line.

Alf Bakken, Alma 2811; Bob Osborn, Bob 2811.
