Collection Description

UBC 50th Anniversary Sound Collection / UBC Archives (collector). – September-October 1965.

20 audio recordings.

Administrative Sketch

The University of British Columbia Archives was established in 1970 as part of UBC Library's Special Collections Division. It serves as the University's corporate memory by identifying, preserving and making available for use the University's permanently valuable records.

In 1965, to commemorate the fiftieth anniversary of the opening of the University of British Columbia, the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC) conducted a series of interviews with prominent alumni and former faculty. Copies of the audio recordings were eventually acquired by the University Archives.

Scope and Content

The collection consists of 20 audio recordings – one of which is a recording of the UBC 50th anniversary commemorative ceremonies on 1 October 1965, and the others being CBC interviews with prominent alumni and former faculty on 7-8 September 1965.

Notes

Item list available.

The original audiotape recordings have been digitized as .mp3 sound files and placed on-line - these files are listed and linked in the item list. Longer recordings have been split between two sound files.
