38 cm of textual records and other material.

Administrative History

The Canadian Children's Illustrated Book Project consists of three interrelated research projects on Canadian children's illustrated books and publishing: Canadian Children's Illustrated Book Project (funded by SSHRC), Canadian Children's Illustrated Books Project / History of the Book in Canada (funded by SSHRC) and Canadian Children's Illustrated Books Project / Hampton Regional and Alternative Children's Publishers Project (funded by Hampton). The research was used for Picturing Canada: A History of Canadian Illustrated Books and Publishing by Gail Edwards and Judith Saltman (Toronto: University of Toronto Press, 2010) and for articles in The History of the Book in Canada, Volume 3 (Toronto: University of Toronto Press, 2007). Judith Saltman is a Professor at the School of Library, Archival & Information Studies and Chair of the Master of Arts in Children's Literature Program at the University of British Columbia.

Scope and Content

The collection consists of transcripts and audio tape recordings of 133 interviews with Canadian publishers, authors, educators, librarians, illustrators, critics and scholars. Interviews were conducted by Judith Saltman, Gail Edwards, Kathryn Shoemaker, Cherie Givens and Camille Callison, primarily between 2003-2006. Subjects covered include Canadian publishing and editing, the book marketplace, the history of children's picturebook authors' and illustrators' access to grants, tours, and readings, a national style and identity, literacy, culture, medium, process, the relationship between words and pictures, working relationships, education, and libraries.

Notes

Further accruals are not expected.

Access restrictions: Interviews can not be reproduced or used as a whole. Users must contact the copyright holders for permission to reproduce quotations from the SSHRC-funded interviews, but not from the Hampton-funded interviews.
