Fonds Description

Theodore Boggs fonds. – 1912-1925.

6.5 cm of textual records.

Biographical Sketch

Theodore Boggs (1882-1969), who became the University of British Columbia's first economics professor and head of the Department of Economics, Sociology and Political Science from 1916 to 1930, was born in southern India where his parents served as missionaries. He was educated at Yale (M.A. 1906) and Acadia (Ph.D. 1908) before his UBC appointment. He moved to Stanford University in 1930 and remained there until his retirement in 1947. As a member of the Faculty of UBC, he is recognized as one of the pioneers who helped to build the young university.

Scope and Content

The fonds consists of page proofs for Boggs book entitled The International Trade Balance in Theory and Practice (1922), articles and clippings (1912-1925), and class records (1921-1925).
