Fonds Description

Mary Louise Bollert fonds. – 1865?-1993.

52 cm of textual materials.

512 photographs

3 artifacts.

Biographical Sketch

Mary Louise Bollert (1880s?-1945) was the first Dean of Women at the University of British Columbia. She arrived at UBC in 1921 in the new role of “Advisor to Women” and became “Dean of Women” in 1922 when her position was renamed. She remained at UBC as Dean of Women until her retirement in 1941. She also held the position of Assistant Professor of English and was a member of the UBC Senate from 1933-1941. She is remembered for her work for women students, including her fight to create proper resident accommodation for women, her creation of a women’s student loan fund to help assist women, and her belief that educated women could work together to change society for the better. Mary Bollert Hall, at 6253 Northwest Marine Drive, originally built as a women’s residence, is named for her.

Mary Bollert was born in Guelph, Ontario to Malinda (Bowers) Bollert and Ernest Robert Bollert (please see below under “Notes” for further information regarding her date of birth and other significant dates). Mary Bollert had three younger sisters, L. Grace, Helen, and Florence, and a younger brother, Ernest. She attended high school in Guelph. Subsequently, she attended the University of Toronto where she graduated with a Bachelor of Arts in Modern Languages.

Although there remains some confusion over the exact dates and titles of post-graduate degrees that she obtained, it appears that she completed a graduate degree at the University of Toronto, studied at the Ontario Normal College, and subsequently obtained an additional post-graduate degree from Columbia University in New York. During her time in New York, she held posts as Principal of Alma College in St. Thomas and taught at Curtis High School, Horace Mann High School and Teacher’s College, Columbia University.

After her time in New York, Mary Bollert returned to Canada and worked as Dean of Women and Professor of English at Regina College (likely from 1914-1917 though here, too, there remains confusion as to dates and her exact title). At some point before 1917, she began work in Toronto with the Robert Simpson Company as its Director of Education and Social Work. In 1917, she accepted the additional role of Superintendent of Sherbourne House, a residential club for business women and girls in Toronto. Her sister, Florence Bollert, began as Mary's secretary at Sherbourne House in 1917 and subsequently herself became Superintendent from 1921-1946.

During her time at UBC, Mary Bollert was involved with many organizations. In 1926 she was one of two women representing Canada at the Institute of Pacific Relations in Honolulu. She was a Canadian representative at conferences of the International Federation of University Women in Paris, Geneva, and Edinburgh and she was a speaker at the International Congress of Women in 1933. In 1934 she was selected to tour Japan as one of 12 women who held the position of Dean of Women at universities across North America. When she passed away in 1945, she was International President of the Pan-Pacific Women's Association, a position she was first elected to in 1937.

Additionally, Mary Bollert was a charter member of the Soroptimist Club, Vice President of the Board of Directors of the Student Christian Movement, UBC, National President of the University Women's Club, Honorary Secretary of the Women's Canadian Club, Honorary Regent of the University Chapter of the Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire, member of the Toronto University Alumni Association, member of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, as well as a member of St-Andrew's-Wesley United Church in Vancouver.

Custodial History

The UBC Archives were given these documents in 2013 by Louise Hager, grand-niece of Mary Louise Bollert.

Scope and Content

The fonds consists of four series – Personal Materials series, Bollert Family series, Artifacts series, and Photographs series. They feature correspondence to and from members of the Bollert Family, information and notes used in speeches on various subjects to various groups given by Mary Bollert, collected newspaper clippings relating to members of the Bollert family, as well as a number of personal diaries and notebooks. The documents focus on the immediate family of Mary Bollert and include documents she collected. The fonds also includes 512 photographs, many of them portraits of members of the Bollert family.

Notes

File list available.

Please note that although it is clear that Mary Bollert died on July 31, 1945, there remains doubt as to her date of birth. A number of secondary sources, including the book by Jean Mann, Beverly New and Cathy Barford titled Women Lead the Way – A History of the University Women's Club of Vancouver, 1907-2007 (Ray Hignall Services Ltd:

Vancouver, 2007, p.33) and the website www.famouscanadianwomen.com report her birth date as 1884. Nonetheless, the BC Vital Statistics records that she was 63 when she died in 1945 (thus suggesting she was born between August 1, 1881 and July 30, 1882). Moreover, handwritten notes within the fonds themselves on the backs of photographs or in notebooks indicate she was born in 1875, 1876, or 1879. Mary Bollert is buried alongside her parents and siblings at Mountain View Cemetery in Vancouver; however, while the marker reflects her date of death as 1945, it does not indicate her date of birth.

Similarly, there remains some debate surrounding the dates and titles of degrees that she obtained. For example, secondary sources such as It's Up to You (Stewart, Lee. "It's Up to You" Women at UBC in the Early Years (University of British Columbia Press: Vancouver, 1990, p. 69 ) indicates that she obtained a B.A. from the University of Toronto in 1906 as does her obituary in the Vancouver Sun (Wed August 1, 1945). However, her obituary in the Vancouver Province, while agreeing she obtained a degree at the University of Toronto, states that she obtained her degree in 1900, as does the aforementioned Women Lead the Way. Both of these secondary sources indicate that she obtained a A.M. (or M.A.) from Columbia in 1908; however, on a later page inserted between pages 84 and 85 in "It's Up to You" the caption alongside a photograph of Mary indicates that she obtained her degree from Columbia in 1918. Many sources suggest she also received a M.A. from the University of Toronto, including a letter from Buckingham Palace which is addressed to "Miss M.L. Bollert, M.A., A.M."

For further information surrounding the confusion over dates in the life of Mary Louise Bollert, please inquire at the UBC Archives about the document entitled "Mary Louise Bollert fonds – Confusion Over Dates" contained within the Accession file.

Series Descriptions

Personal Materials Series. – 1915?-1961.

25.0 cm of textual records.

Series consists of handwritten notebooks, notes for speeches given on various subjects to various organizations, newspaper clippings relating to subjects of interest to Mary Bollert, and notes taken during her trip to Japan and China in the 1930s. When received by the archives, a number of the documents were contained in roughly chronological order within a file box likely maintained by Mary Bollert. The description of these specific files includes a note recording the title originally written on the folders themselves. Other documents include notebooks written by Mary Bollert and newspaper clipping contained in envelopes presumably collected by Mary Bollert. These have been included in the series in roughly chronological order.

Bollert Family Series. – 1865-1993.

27.0 cm of textual records.

Series consists of diaries of Bollert family members, correspondence to and from members of the Bollert family, newspaper clippings relating to members of the Bollert family, papers related to the burial of the Bollert family members at Mountain View Cemetery in Vancouver, as well as other miscellaneous documentation. In general the documents appear to focus specifically on the immediate family of Mary Bollert. Indeed, a number of the documents appear to have been collected by Florence Bollert (sometimes referred to as Floy) and L. Grace Bollert as they are specifically addressed within correspondence.

Artifacts Series. – ?-1937.

3 artifacts.

Series consists of three artifacts including a drawing of Cyrus Bowers, grandfather of Mary Bollert; a mailing tube used by Grace Bollert, sister of Mary Bollert, to house a number of her degrees; and a Coronation Medal and letter sent from Buckingham Palace to Mary Bollert to commemorate the coronation of King George VI.

Photographs Series. – [1870s?-1946?].

512 photographs.

Series consists of photographs taken and collected by the Bollert family over the years. Many of the photographs are portraits taken of the immediate family of Mary Bollert. The series also includes candid shots taken on vacation or at family gatherings and photographs which were contained in three separate albums.
