Administrative History

“Champions for Change” is a documentary series about Canadian Paralympians by Elitha Peterson Productions that aired on Sportsnet in 2005. “Champions for Change” aired in three half-hour segments titled “Sports First,” “Let the Games Begin”, and “The Value of Gold.” It focuses on three Canadian Paralympians, Chantal Benoit, Jeff Adams, and Chantal Petitclerc, and the history and issues of the Paralympic Movement in Canada.

Elitha Peterson Productions and Executive Producer Sylvia Sweeney produced “Champions for Change” in 2005. For this project, Elitha Peterson Productions Inc. partnered with Dan Ierullo, Canadian distributor and producer and former owner of Records on Wheels. Sylvia Sweeney herself is a Canadian Olympian (1976 and 1984), was inducted into the Canadian Basketball Hall of Fame in 1984, and was the Most Valuable Player in the World Championships of Basketball in 1979. She has produced many award-winning documentaries including the 1992 documentary titled “In the Key of Oscar.” She named Elitha Peterson Productions after her mother, Daisy Elitha Peterson Sweeney, renowned musician and piano professor and sister to famous jazz musician and composer, Oscar Peterson.

The three Canadian Paralympians highlighted in “Champions for Change” are all renowned Canadian Paralympic competitors. Chantal Benoit, 16-year member of Canada’s Wheelchair Basketball Team, competed for Canada at five Paralympic Games, winning three gold medals (Barcelona, 1992; Atlanta, 1996; Sydney, 2000) and one bronze (Athens, 2004). She was Canada’s flag bearer at Athens in 2004.

“Champions for Change” also features Jeff Adams, a six-time world champion in Wheelchair Sports. He competed for Canada at six consecutive Paralympics (1988-2008), winning three gold, four silver, and six bronze medals. He was inducted into the Terry Fox Hall of Fame in 1997.

Chantal Petitclerc is also featured in “Champions for Change”. She is a Canadian Wheelchair Racer who has won 21 Paralympic medals, 14 of them gold. After her performance at the 2008 Summer Paralympics in Beijing, she was awarded the Lou Marsh Trophy as Canadian Athlete of the Year. She was flag bear for the Canadian team. at the 2006 Commonwealth Games. In 2009, she was made a Companion of the Order of Canada.

Custodial History
