Fonds Description

Centre for Human Settlements fonds. - 1974-1980; predominant May-June 1976.

272 videocassettes.

38 audio tapes.

Administrative History

The Centre for Human Settlements was established at the University of British Columbia at the time of the United Nations Conference of Human Settlements (Habitat '76) in Vancouver in May 1976. Administered by a director responsible to an interdisciplinary Board of Management chaired by the Dean of Graduate Studies, the Centre was created to further the goals of the Habitat conference by providing a research focus for issues relating to human settlement. One of the main objectives of the Centre was the provision of access to the audio-visual reference library of video tapes of the 240 presentations contributed by 140 nations participating in the 1976 conference.

Scope and Content

Fonds consists of a series of video tapes created during the United Nations Conference on Human Settlements in 1976. In addition, the fonds includes audio recordings of the meetings of the Co-ordinating Committee for Habitat '76 as well as recordings from a lecture series established following the conference.

Notes

Fonds consists of institutional records – access requests must be reviewed by the University's FOIPOP Coordinator.

File list available.
