Fonds Description

Department of Geography fonds. - 1969-1986.

1.05 m of textual records.

Administrative History

The Dept. of Geology and Mineralogy was one of the original departments of the University of British Columbia. In 1922/23, the name was changed to Geology and Geography. In 1953, the informal administrative arrangements, which had existed for several years, were made official with the department being separated into two divisions in the Faculty of Arts and Science. The Dept. of Geology and Geography was split in 1959. When the Faculty of Arts and Science was itself split in 1964, the Dept. of Geography was placed in the Faculty of Arts and the Dept. of Geology in the Faculty of Science. The Dept. of Geography has been headed by Lewis Robinson (1959-1968), John C. Chapman (1968-1974), Robert Smith (1975-1982), Olav Slaymaker (1982-1991), T.R. Oke (1992-1996), Graeme Wynn (1996-2002) and Michael Bovis (2002-).

Scope and Content

The fonds consists of correspondence, memoranda, notes, reports, agenda, calendars and printed materials pertaining to the activities of the Department of Geography and its Head (1969-1986). The fonds also contains the Olav Slaymaker Sous-fonds (1975-1976).
