Fonds Description

Ronald Hagler fonds. – 1963-1971.

39 cm of textual records.

21 photographs.

Biographical Sketch

Ronald Hagler obtained his B.A. (1955) from the University of Ottawa and continued with post-graduate education at the University of Michigan where he earned his M.L.S. (1957) and Ph.D. (1961). In 1961, Hagler joined UBC's new School of Librarianship headed by Samuel Rothstein. He taught at the University of British Columbia in the School of Library, Archival and Information Studies as an instructor and then assistant and later full professor of library science from 1961 to 1999 when he retired.

Scope and Content

The fonds consists of textual records related to workshops and conferences that Hagler attended and publications with which he was involved. The fonds also includes photographs that may have been taken at those conferences or included in published texts. The fonds is arranged into three series: Workshops and Conferences, Publications, and Photographs.

Note

Some files were originally part of the Marion Gilroy fonds.

Series Descriptions

Workshops and Conferences series. – 1963-1971.

21 cm of textual records.

Series consists of transcripts which were generated by the AACR Workshop held at UBC in April 1967. Tape recordings of the workshop proceedings were made and the transcripts were used for a publication entitled “New Rules for an Old Game” (1967). Series also consists of records related to the ABCL 1968 Conference and the Centennial Citizen's Conference on Libraries in 1971.

Publications series. – [1966-1967].

18 cm of textual records.

Series consists of materials related to such publications as The Anglo-American Cataloguing Rules and Public Libraries in British Columbia by Ross Vainstein.

Photographs series. – [undated].

21 photographs.

This series contains photographs related to libraries and library conferences, including photographs of patrons using libraries and meetings and posters at conferences.

All photographs have been removed from folder 3-08 and are stored separately. Some photographs have notes on the back which may indicate an intention for them to be published in books.
