Biographical Sketch

John Forman Howes (1924-2017) was born in Chicago, Illinois, on June 19, 1924. He completed undergraduate courses at Kalamazoo College (1942-1943), Western Michigan State University (1943-1944), U. S. Naval School of Oriental Studies in Boulder, Colorado (1944-1946) and Oberlin College in Oberlin, Ohio, where he obtained a BA in history in 1950. From 1950-1961, he attended Columbia University, where he received an MA in 1953 and a Ph.D. in 1965. While working on his graduate degrees, Howes took courses at Tokyo University (1953-1956) and Kyoto University (1959-1960). In 1961, Howes joined UBC as an Assistant Professor in the Department of Asian Studies. He was promoted to Associate Professor in 1966 and then rose to Professor in 1986. Howes taught several courses on Japan in the Asian Studies department: Asian Studies 105, 330, 400, 422 and 423. His main research areas and scholarly interests focused on modern Japanese history, Japanese pacifism before World War II, the life and works of Uchimura Kanzo and Nitobe Inazo, and Japanese cultural history from 1890 to 1945. He wrote and published numerous articles, reports and books in both English and Japanese on a wide variety of Japanese-related topics and actively attended and participated in various conferences and seminars promoting Asian Studies. Howes was also involved in the extensive planning and fundraising to create the Asian Centre at UBC.

Scope and Content

The fonds consists of curriculum vitae, a biographical summary, nomination application for the Order of Canada, correspondence, reference letters and news clippings regarding the nomination, incoming and outgoing correspondence, lecture notes, course syllabi, speeches and papers, book reviews, lists of Howes' publications, surveys, application forms for grants and academic leaves, research notes, committee minutes, photographs and architectural drawings. The fonds consists of 10 series: Personal Records, Correspondence, Course Materials, Conferences and Seminars, Asian Studies Department, Book Reviews, Professional Papers, Research Materials, Subject Files and Photographs.

Notes

The predominant languages in the records are English and Japanese.

Arrangement: Photographs of Japanese scenery, unidentified Japanese individuals and Nitobe Gardens as well as the architectural drawings of the Asian Centre have been kept in their original files with their corresponding records while photographs of John Howes have been removed and placed in a separate photographs series UBC 91.1.

Accrual: Photocopies of two sets of correspondence, written by Howes from Asia in 1948 and 1953, were donated by him to the Archives in July 2011. Howes retained the originals.

Accrual: In January 2021, an application nominating Professor John Howes for the Order of Canada was received from the nominees. No further accruals are expected.

File list available.
