Biographical Sketch

John Forman Howes was born in Chicago, Illinois on June 19, 1924. He completed undergraduate courses at Kalamazoo College (1942-1943), Western Michigan State University (1943-1944), U. S. Naval School of Oriental Studies in Boulder, colorado (1944-1946) and Oberlin College in Oberlin, Ohio where he obtained an AB in history in 1950. From 1950-1961, he attended Columbia University where he obtained an AM in 1953 and a Ph.D. in 1965. While working on his graduate degrees, Howes also took courses at Tokyo University (1953-1956) and Kyoto University (1959-1960). In 1961, Howes joined UBC as an Assistant Professor in the Department of Asian Studies. He was promoted to Associate Professor in 1966 and then rose to Professor in 1986. Howes taught a number of courses on Japan in the Asian Studies department: Asian Studies 105, 330, 400, 422 and 423. His main areas of research and scholarly interests focused on modern Japanese history, Japanese pacifism before World War II, life and works of Uchimura Kanzo and Nitobe Inazo, and Japanese cultural history from 1890 to 1945. He wrote and published numerous articles, reports and books in both English and Japanese on a wide variety of Japanese-related topics and actively attended and participated in a variety of conferences and seminars promoting Asian Studies. In addition to his scholarly work, Howes was also involved in the extensive planning and fundraising for the creation of the Asian Centre at UBC.

Scope and Content

The fonds consists of a curriculum vitae, incoming and outgoing correspondence, lecture notes, course syllabi, speeches and papers, book reviews, lists of Howes’ publications, surveys, application forms for grants and academic leaves, research notes, committee minutes, photographs and architectural drawings. The fonds consists of 10 series: Personal Records, Correspondence, Course Materials, Conferences and Seminars, Asian Studies Department, Book Reviews, Professional Papers, Research Materials, Subject Files and Photographs. The records were organized according to either Howes original filing system or to its overall contents.
Notes

Photographs of Japanese scenery, unidentified Japanese individuals and Nitobe Gardens as well as the architectural drawings of the Asian Centre have been kept in their original files with their corresponding records while photographs of John Howes have been removed and placed in a separate Photographs series.

The predominant languages in the records are English and Japanese.

Photocopies of two sets of correspondence, written by Howes from Asia in 1948 and 1953, were donated by him to the Archives in July 2011. The originals were retained by Howes.

File list available.
Series Descriptions

Personal Records Series. -- 1989.
1 folder.

This series consists of Howes curriculum vitae.

98 cm textual records.
5 photographs: colour.

This series consists of incoming and outgoing correspondence between John Howes and his colleagues, students, friends and family. It includes photocopies of letters written from Asia in 1948-49 and 1953.

Files titles were assigned by the creator.

Course Materials Series. -- 1961-1990.
56.5 cm textual records.

This series consists of Asian Studies course lecture notes, reading lists and course outlines from five specific courses: Asian Studies 105, 330, 400, 422 and 423. Howes notes in this series reveal how these five courses developed and changed over time.

Conferences and Seminars Series. -- 1961-[ca. 1970].
3.8 cm textual records.

This series consists of correspondence, notes, speeches and papers presented at a variety of conferences and seminars.

Other records relating to conference and seminar attended by Howes can also be found in the Research Materials series where he originally filed them.

10 cm textual records.

This series consists of correspondence and reports from the different committees, programs, foundations and societies that Howes participated in and contributed to as a professor in the Asian Studies department at UBC. The series also contains information concerning the departments map and library collections as well as the development of the Nitobe Gardens.
3.5 cm textual records.

This series consists of correspondence and book reviews that Howes was asked to complete as a result of his specialized knowledge in Asian Studies.

3.5 cm textual records.

This series consists of correspondence, reviews and suggestions about books and articles on Pacifism in Japan. The series also includes bibliographic lists of Howes publications.

The title of the series was supplied by Howes.

Other records related to Pacifism in Japan can also be found in the Research Materials series where Howes originally filed them.

1.18 m textual records.
5 photographs: 2 b&w and 3 colour.

This series consists of correspondence, notes and articles related to Japan studies in Canada; survey of institutions that offer courses in Japan; a 1977-1978 survey of Canadian Japanologists; Howes involvement in the creation of the Encyclopedia of Japan; correspondence, submissions and suggestions for a TV program on Japanese religion; correspondence and related information concerning Howes involvement in a wide variety of committees, associations and foundations; correspondence and papers presented by Howes at national and international conferences and seminars; grant applications for study abroad; correspondence, travel arrangements (visits to universities) for overseas trips that have been funded by grants to study abroad; correspondence and related information concerning a wide variety of topics related to Howes position as a scholar, writer, and professor within the Asian Studies Department.

File titles have been supplied by Howes and have been kept in his original filing order.

Other records related to conferences and seminars that Howes attended and to the topic Pacifism in Japan can also be found in the Conferences and Seminars series and the Professional Papers series.
33 cm textual records.
14 photographs: 6 b&w and 8 colour.
4 architectural drawings.

This series consists of correspondence, newsletters and coloured photographs from the UBC Asian Studies exchange program to Tezukayama University in Japan; specific research notes; black and white photographs of the Asian Centre construction site and the Nitobe Gardens opening, committee minutes, architectural drawings and correspondence related to the construction and development of the Asian Studies Centre at UBC.

The black and white photographs of the Asian Centre and the Nitobe Gardens have been kept in their original files because they are copies of prints that are already found in the UBC Historical Photograph database.

Photographs Series. -- 1967-1989 and [n.d.].
20 photographs: 7 b&w and 13 colour; 21.8 x 13.8 cm or smaller.
2 slides: colour.

This series consists of black and white and coloured photographs as well as coloured slides of John Howes at various conferences, meetings and events. The series also includes a black and white photograph of Lynn Howes (John’s wife) relatives. Only the photographs with John Howes have been scanned and added to the digital photograph database.

Images included in UBC Archives’ Historical Photograph Database, as UBC 91.1.
