Fonds Description

Institute of Industrial Relations fonds. – 1965-1977.

64 cm of textual records.

Administrative History

The Institute of Industrial Relations was established at the University of British Columbia in 1960 to facilitate an interdisciplinary program of research and education at the University and in the community. Although it supported studies of industrial relations at the graduate and faculty levels, the Institute was not a teaching faculty, nor did it grant special degrees or diplomas. Instead, the Institute lent support to faculty research and to students engaged in graduate programs who were interested in focusing upon various aspects of industrial relations. The following individuals served as directors of the Institute: W.A. Carrothers (1960-1962), J.T. Montague (1962-1968), S.M. Jamieson (1969-1970), Noel Hall (1971-1973), Donald McRae (1974) and Mark Thompson (1975-1977). The activities of the Institute were suspended in 1977.

Scope and Content

The fonds consists of correspondence, memoranda, reports, financial materials, proceedings, research materials, and subject files pertaining to the overall activities of the Institute of Industrial Relations.

Notes

Fonds consists of institutional records – access requests must be reviewed by the University's FOIPOP Coordinator.
