Biographical Sketch

Hunter Campbell Lewis was born in Tamworth, Ontario in 1897 and graduated from UBC, B.A. (1923) and M.A. (1928) in English. He joined the Department of English in 1929 as an assistant professor and remained on staff until his retirement in 1962. Lewis was well known to generations of students for his course in contemporary English literature. In addition to his teaching duties, Lewis was also well known for his activities in the art world serving as former president of the Federation of Canadian Artists. Lewis was also one of the organizers of the Vancouver branch of the Civil Liberties Union and a former chairman of the Committee on Indian Citizenship. He was a leader in the movement to revive and recognize the importance of native Indian Art and to this end he carried out an extensive survey of totemic carvings in B.C.

Scope and Content

Fonds consists of correspondence, speeches, scrapbooks and photographs pertaining to Hunter Lewis and other members of his family including Stella Lewis (wife), Bertha Lewis (mother) and Dr. George Albert McGuire (father-in-law) who served as a Conservative MLA for Vancouver about the time of World War I. Fonds includes four diaries from Bertha Campbell Lewis (1934-57). Fonds also includes materials pertaining to the Canadian Federation of Artists.
