Fonds Description

Helen McCrae fonds. – 1961-1972.

1 folder of textual materials.

Biographical Sketch

Born in Glasgow, Scotland, Helen McCrae received her B.A. from the University of Toronto, and an M.S.W. from UBC in 1948. In 1950 she joined UBC's School of Social Work as director of field work. She was appointed Dean of Women at UBC in 1959 and held that position until her retirement in 1973. McCrae was then honoured with the title of Dean Emerita of Women.

Scope and Content

Fonds consists of two Senate reports from 1961 and 1962 relating to fraternities and sororities on the UBC campus, and a copy of a speech delivered by McCrae on the topic of sororities during a Panhellenic workshop in 1972.

Notes

Also known as the "Fraternities and Sororities Collection".
