Fonds Description

Ronald Shearer fonds. – April-June 1971.

13 cm of textual records.

Biographical Sketch

Ronald Shearer was born in Trail, B.C. After completing his B.A. at UBC (1954), he studied economics at Ohio State University, receiving his M.A. (1955) and Ph.D. (1959) there. Shearer taught at the University of Michigan before joining the Department of Economics at UBC in 1964. He served as head of the Department from 1972 to 1976. In 1971, Shearer, along with colleague Anthony Scott, prepared a submission for the Standing Senate Committee on National Finance. The Committee held hearings to consider the issue of economic stabilization in Canada, and requested briefs from leading economists.

Scope and Content

Fonds consists of briefs, correspondence, clippings and proceedings produced by Shearer and others through their participation in the Standing Senate Committee on National Finance.
