Fonds Description

Sigma Tau Chi fonds. - 1942-1950.

6.5 cm of textual records.

Administrative History

The Sigma Tau Chi honorary fraternity at the University of British Columbia was founded in 1942. Its members have been chosen from all sections of the undergraduate student body in recognition of their services and leadership in extra-curricular activities at UBC. The purpose of the fraternity is to foster, among the leaders of student organizations, better understanding of the aims and ideals of other undergraduate organizations at UBC.

Scope and Content

The fonds consists of three bound minute books covering the period 1942-1950.
