Fonds Description

Reginald Eyre Watters fonds. – 1956-1958.

86 cm of textual records.

Biographical Sketch

Born in Toronto in 1912, Reginald Eyre Watters earned his B.A. (1935) and M.A. (1937) from the University of Toronto and Ph.D. (1941) from the University of Wisconsin. He taught English at the University of Washington and Indiana prior to joining the Department of English at UBC in 1956. He left the university in 1961 to assume a position at the Royal Military College, Kingston. Amongst his numerous publications, Watters edited British Columbia: A Centennial Anthology (1958) and A Checklist of Canadian Literature and Background Materials, 1628-1960 (1959).

Scope and Content

Fonds consists of correspondence and manuscript materials. The papers were generated through Watter's work on a variety of publications and as editor-in-chief of British Columbia: A Centennial Anthology. They include correspondence with members of the Advisory Board (1956-1958) and others connected with the publication, correspondence with authors (1957), manuscripts of articles and poems (both accepted and rejected), page proofs, and reviews of the book (1958). Also included in the collection is a typed manuscript for the Checklist of Canadian Literature.
