

AVIS HARLEY

Avis Harley has taught in elementary schools in Canada and England, and also at UBC in the Language and Literacy Education Department. Now retired from teaching, Avis devotes her time to children's poetry.

She has written and illustrated FLY WITH POETRY: An ABC of Poetry, and its companion book LEAP INTO POETRY: More ABCs of Poetry. Her newest book of poetry, SEA STARS: Saltwater Poems, is illustrated with photographs by Margaret Butschler. Avis's poems also appear in several anthologies.

Harley, Avis. (2006). Sea Stars: Saltwater Poems, photographs by Margaret Butschler. Honesdale, PA: Wordsong.

Harley, Avis. (2001). Leap Into Poetry: More ABC's of Poetry, written and illustrated by Avis Harley. Honesdale, PA: Wordsong/Boyd's Mills Press.

Harley, Avis. (2000). Fly With Poetry: An ABC of Poetry, written and illustrated by Avis Harley. Honesdale, PA: Wordsong/Boyd's Mills Press.

Three more poetry books are being published—one by Candlewick Press, another by Chronicle Books, and the third by Boyd's Mills Press.