

presents

Breakfast with Jack Zipes

Sat March 27, 2010
The University Golf Club,
5185 University Blvd.
Registration, coffee, book sales
from 8 am and breakfast at 9 am.

Free parking.
Bus routes #4 and #17 stop in front; NOTE #99 does not

“Discovering Buried Fairy Tales: Adventures of a Scholarly Scavenger”

Join us for breakfast and an engaging talk by Professor Jack Zipes, world renowned scholar of folklore and fairy tale, as he shares with us some of his travels in the realms of fairy.

Special Guest: Janet Wilson, winner of the Roundtables of Canada Information Book Award.

NAME _____

ADDRESS _____

PHONE _____ EMAIL _____

PAID: $ _____ Note: Cheques may be post-dated up to March 15, 2010.

REGISTER EARLY as seating is limited

BREAKFAST: Renewing/New Member $45 Non-Member $55 Full-time Student $25
(please add $15 if you are renewing)

Cheques payable to: Vancouver Children's Literature Roundtable

Registration and Membership to: Linda Dunbar, c/o Education Library, 2125 Main Mall, Vancouver, BC V6T 1Z4

Membership form is available online: www.library.ubc.ca/edlib/table

Further Information: Kathie Shoemaker 604-736-2107 / Margot Filipenko 604-827-5680 / Linda Dunbar 604-822-8783

Membershin information: Linda Dunbar 604-822-8783 or linda.dunbar@ubc.ca

Professor Jack Zipes is in Vancouver in March 2010 as the Cecil H. and Ida Green Visiting Professor, Green College. The Vancouver Children's Literature Roundtable wishes to express thanks to Green College, UBC, for inviting him to UBC.