

Open Access: Experiences from UBC Okanagan

Come and learn how Open Access can support your research and publication.

Date: October 21, 2009

Time: 1:30-2:30

Place: UNC 334

Audience: Faculty & Graduate Students

Light refreshments provided

Please register in advance.

Speakers:

- Lawrence Berg, PHD. Canada Research Chair In Human Rights, Diversity and Identity, Associate Professor, Geography.
- Peter Arthur, PHD. Director, Centre for Teaching & Learning.
- Barbara Sobol, MLIS. Learning Services Librarian (Research).

Open Access is a growing international movement that uses the Internet to throw open the locked doors that once hid knowledge. Open Access is the principle that all research should be freely accessible online, immediately after publication, and it's gaining ever more momentum around the world as research funders and policy makers throw their weight behind it.

