THERE WILL BE ONE INTERMISSION OF FIFTEEN MINUTES

The prophet who presumes to utter in my name what I have not commanded him . . . that prophet shall die. If you ask, 'How shall we recognize words that have not come from the Lord?', this is the answer: When the words spoken by the prophet are not fulfilled and do not come true, they are not from the Lord.

Deuteronomy 18:18-22

God said: 'You are all gods. You are all sons of the Most High. But you will die like men.'

Psalms 82:6-7

Then Jesus ordered his disciples not to tell anyone he was the Messiah.

Matthew 16:20

Deus ex machina (Latin: the god from the machine, by which in ancient theatre deities appeared from heaven) A person or thing introduced at the last moment to provide a contrived solution to an apparently insoluble difficulty.
