When you can assume that your audience holds the same beliefs as you do, you can relax a little and use more normal means of talking to it. When you have to assume that it does not, then you have to make your vision apparent by shock — to the hard of hearing you shout and for the almost blind you draw large and startling figures.

-Flannery O'Connor, Mystery and Manners

The nation's morals are like teeth: the more decayed they are the more it hurts to touch them.
