BASEMENT FLOOR PLAN

UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO LIBRARY BUILDING
Completed to date Dec. 15, 1922
Architect: J. F. Smith
September 1922

All dimensions, including to center of wall, are given to the round face, exclusive of finish. Except within limits of stack room.
The center line of columns, shown on all plans, is to be located by a steel tape, not a string line.
Follow indicated readings closely, and all dimensions in feet.
