75 cm of textual records.

473 photographs: col. slides; 35 mm

Biographical Sketch

Werner Cohn (1926-2018) was born in Berlin; he later received his BSS in Sociology from City College (New York) in 1951. He completed his MA (1954) and Ph.D. (1956) at the New School for Social Research. He joined the University of British Columbia's Department of Anthropology and Sociology in 1960 and remained there until taking early retirement in 1986. Cohn's research focused on the sociology of Jewish people and small political movements. In particular, Cohn developed an interest in researching Roma. He began his research on this topic in 1966/67 during a sabbatical in France. Cohn continued with his culture and language studies and returned to Europe, meeting with Roma and many well-known Roma scholars. Over the years, Cohn wrote numerous articles in various scholarly journals. In 1973, he wrote The Gypsies, which summarized his findings in the field.

Scope and Content

The fonds consists of two series: the Roma Research series and a Publications series composed of copies of Cohn's publications. The first series includes material generated or collected by Cohn in the course of researching Roma. It includes audiotaped interviews of Roma with notebooks containing descriptions and analysis of the conversations; a computer-generated inventory of kinship ties among hundreds of North American Roma; a transcript of a New York trial (1962) of a Roma fortune teller; miscellaneous printed and published materials on Roma, collected by Cohn; and materials from a correspondence course for learning Romani (1969/70). The research series also contains photographs (1968-74) of Roma taken by Cohn throughout North America and Europe. The Publications series includes copies of Cohn articles (1959-1993) and a bibliography of his works (1950-1993).

Notes

WARNING: Please be aware that researchers will come across terms that are no longer acceptable. In instances where these terms are used in original titles, they have not been changed.

Researchers are strongly advised to check with the University Archives regarding permission to publish or otherwise use materials from this fonds.

Additional information about Cohn can be found at <http://www.wernercohn.com/> (last accessed September 2020).

The photographs were donated to UBC Archives by Professor Cohn's daughter-in-law in March 2020.

No further accruals are expected.

Series Descriptions

Roma Research series. - 1950-1979.

181 audio tapes.

70 cm of textual records.

473 photographs: col. (slides); 5 x 5 cm

The series consists of audiotaped interviews (UBC AT 1366) with Rom including notebooks containing description and analysis of the interviews; a computer-generated inventory of kinship ties among hundreds of North American Rom; a transcript of a New York trial (1962) of a Rom fortune teller; miscellaneous printed and published materials about Roma collected by Cohn (1950-1979); and materials from a correspondence course for learning Romani (1969/70).

The photographs were taken of Roma by Werner Cohn between 1968 and 1974, both in Europe and North America. Locations of these photographs include Bucharest, Belgrade, Paris, Sarajevo, Skopje, Niš [Serbia], Istanbul, Paris, Vienna, England and Poland. Within North America, photographs were taken of Roma in Seattle, Vancouver, Quebec, California and New York. The photographs depict celebrations such as weddings, Christmas and Slava's (The Slava is a Serbian Orthodox Christian tradition celebrating a family's patron saint). Photographs include nomadic Roma images, wagons, caravans, tents, cooking, ornaments, and individual portraits. The photos reflect the richness and beauty of the Roma and Roma culture and also capture great hardships. The series 194.1 is not yet digitized and can be found in the UBC Archives vault. For a list of photographs present, please see Appendix I below.

Publications series. - 1950-1993.

4.5 cm of textual records.

The series consists of off-prints and copies of articles by Cohn (1959-1993) and a bibliography of his publications (1950-1993). It also includes a copy of Cohn's Early Companions: A Novella (2005).
