Biographical Sketch

Alex Peter Harshenin was born in Brilliant, B.C. He attended the University of British Columbia where he received his B.A. (1955) and M.A. (1960). Harshenin joined UBC's Department of Slavonic Studies in 1960 and received his Ph.D. from the University of Washington in 1974. He continued with the department until his death in 1977. He specialized in Doukhorbor dialect, theoretical linguistics and Russian language.

Scope and Content

The fonds consists of 62 oral history recordings – many of which are duplicated, for a total of 147 audio tapes. Also included are card indexes, notebooks and written notes, as well as published materials relating to Harshenin's research into the Doukhorbor language and dialect.

Notes

Previously known as the Alex Harshenin Research Collection.

Title based on the contents of the fonds.

Tapes recorded in Russian. Notes and card indexes written in Russian.

File List of textual records available. Typescript summaries of oral history tapes, compiled in 1979 by Helen Josafatow, are also available. However, there are no Russian-English translations. Tapes are catalogued as UBC AT 555; due to misnumbering in the original accession, there is no AT 555-55.
