Series Description

Haweis Family Photographs. - [186-]-1940.

ca. 1,250 photographs.

The Haweis family photographs consist of over 1,250 black and white and photoprints and negatives contained in albums, portfolios, diaries and as individual items. They cover two main subject areas: the life and times of Reverend Hugh R. Haweis and his wife Mary E.J. Haweis; and the lives of their children, Lionel, predominantly and Hugolin and Stephen. The earlier photographs, dating back to the 1860s and 1870s consist mainly of professional portraits of family and friends and travel views in England, Germany and Italy. The majority of the photographs in this period are albumen cartes-des-visites and cabinet cards. The photographs dating from the turn of the century to the 1940s revolve around Lionel's interests and those of his daughter Renee. There are both professionally taken photographs by Lionel and Hugolin of friends and family and landscapes, art photographs by Lionel, as well as snapshots of friends.

The four albums of photographs in the H.R. and M.E.J. Haweis series will be of particular interest to social historians and those interested in the history of photography as they exemplify the social conventions of the time as well as the conventions in picture taking of the second half of the nineteenth century. There are also many examples of early photographic processes. Researchers of art photography should look at the Portrait and View Portfolio in the Lionel Haweis Family series as well as his portraits of his daughter. This latter series also contains 60 glass plate negative views of Stanley Park, 1912 (Boxes 17-19) which will be useful to researchers of early Vancouver views. These photographs, from Lionel Haweis' Rosetti Studios, have been digitized and are available for viewing on-line.

The photographs in this collection have been arranged into four sub-series according to name of the creator/collector of the photographs. This mirrors the arrangement of the manuscript materials in the Haweis family papers that have already been processed and relates the photographs to the family member and his or her papers which the photographs amplify, and in some cases, illustrate. The first sub-series, H.R. and M.E.J. Haweis, covers the years 1860-1900. The photographs concern all the members of the family, including both the grandparents and the children, Lionel, Hugolin and Stephen Haweis before the turn of the century. The second sub-series, Lionel Haweis family, includes all those photographs taken and collected by Lionel and his daughter, Renee, between 1900 and 1940. The third and fourth sub-series, Hugolin Haweis and Stephen Haweis, which are small series, contain photographs of their concern between 1890 and 1940.

Photographs are administered by UBC Rare Books and Special Collections.

Lionel Haweis family sub-series. - 1900-1940.

This sub-series has been arranged by form of material and then chronologically. However, as many of the photographs are not dated, the chronology of the visuals may not be correct. Researchers should expect to confirm the dates themselves. Some of the materials in this series were obviously taken or collected by Lionel and some by Renee. However, because in many cases there was no evidence as to who had collected the material, Lionel or Renee, no attempt has been made to group photographs by creator of the materials. Researchers will have to discover the connections through reading the manuscript materials and secondary sources.
