Fonds Description

Indian Education Resource Centre fonds. – 1970-1979.

30 cm of textual records.

Administrative History

The Indian Education Resource Centre was established in Brock Hall on the UBC campus in 1970. It functioned as a resource centre for Indigenous peoples education in British Columbia, visiting Indigenous schools, establishing Indigenous research and curriculum projects, producing the Indian Education Newsletter, disseminating information about Indigenous affairs and education, and serving as a lobby organization for Indigenous peoples education in B.C. and across Canada. An association of professionals, para-professionals and members of the educational community, the Centre was funded by government grants and private donations. The Centre was closed in 1978.

Scope and Content

Fonds consists of correspondence, printed material, minutes, notes and reports documenting its various activities in the area of Indigenous Peoples advocacy and education.

Notes

Fonds consists of institutional records – access requests must be reviewed by the University's FOIPOP Coordinator.

Title based on the contents of the fonds.

Records found in a building scheduled for demolition, and transferred to the University Archives in 1985.

The term “Indian” is now outdated and is considered by many Indigenous Peoples to be offensive. However, it is retained here as part of an historical organizational name.
