Imagery tips

- Draw in black and white for good contrast
- Put the patron / person in the picture
- Give words a context -- Words out of context are harder to integrate
- Print so that students can see the shape of the word
- "Ground" the words by putting a box around them

THE 205 - Finding Commentaries & Background Information about Biblical Passages

Fall 2006

Contemporary Commentary Exercise

Your group will look at a commentary from the Anchor Bible series, which is located in the Book Stacks on reserve for THE 205 students.

Anchor Bible Series - Genesis
Book Stacks BS192.2 .A1 1964 G3 v. 1

1. Look at the Table of Contents for this book. Look at the contents of the "Introduction" section--what types of information will you find about this book of the Bible?

2. Look for the section of this commentary which covers "Genesis [xiii]: 1-18." What information is provided in the Notes section? How does this help you to better understand this passage?

3. Why would you use this source?
